Introducing the 20-Minute Manager Series

Smart advice, right when you need it. Our new series addresses the very real problem of being short on time and needing answers fast. But not just any answers—the right ones, from the best source. The new series launches this spring (2014) with four titles, followed by another four titles in June 2014. Perfect for spinners, plane rides, and for getting up to speed the day before the big meeting or presentation. Topics include managing time, finance basics, delegating work, running meetings, presentations, and more.

What Makes Each Series Different?

The 20-Minute Manager Series—Bite-sized books offering the fundamentals of business skills for readers who need to learn the basics fast.

HBR Guides Series—Launched in 2012, these books go more in-depth on perennial business skills for today's managers, yet you can still grab them before jumping onto a flight.

HBR Must Reads Series—If you read nothing else, read these priority articles on core business topics. Pulled from the pages of HBR and featuring the perfect mix of ideas and minds shaping business today.
