Business Baby

Getting Things Done, One Tantrum at a Time • By Alex Beckerman

Little tykes may not have MBAs or PowerPoint skills, but every parent knows who's boss. And it's not the one who can count to three. It's only natural: the toddler skill set is perfectly suited to the corporate world. They're incredibly good at delegating, they're (literally) climbers, and they'll happily give you the business all day long. From troubleshooting how to fit the square peg into the round hole to negotiating deals when both parties can't count on the fingers of one hand, this book of high-chairperson drama will have you laughing out loud at these captioned portraits of business babies getting to work!

Alex Beckerman is a writer taking care of business in Austin, Texas.

Baking with Less Sugar

Recipes for Desserts Using Natural Sweeteners and Little-to-No White Sugar • By Joanne Chang • Photographs by Joseph De Leo

Trust Joanne Chang—beloved author of the bestselling Flour and a Harvard math major to boot—to come up with this winning formula: Minus the sugar equals plus the flavor. The 60-plus recipes here are an eye-opener for anyone who loves to bake and wants to cut back on the sugar. Joanne warmly shares her secrets for playing up delicious ingredients and using natural sweeteners, such as honey, maple syrup, and fruit juice. In addition to entirely new go-to recipes, she’s also revisited classics from Flour and her lines-out-the-door bakeries to use minimal refined sugar. More than 35 mouthwatering photographs beautifully illustrate these revolutionary recipes, making this a must-have book for bakers of all skill levels.

Joanne Chang is the pastry chef-owner of Flour Bakery + Café in Boston.

Joseph De Leo is a food photographer based in New York.

Recipes include:

Better-Than-Flour Famous
Banana Bread

Deep Dark Chocolate
Pudding Cakes

Lemon Ricotta Cupcakes
with Fluffy Lemon Frosting

Pecan-Date Shortbread
Cookies

Maple Cream Donuts

“It’s hard to believe that Flour is Joanne Chang’s first book, because the level of mastery, precision, and experience in it make it feel like the work of someone who’s been showing new bakers the light and the way for a very long time.”

Way More than Luck

Commencement Speeches on Living with Bravery, Empathy, and Other Existential Skills

The commencement speech is the most popular public address of our time, shared every spring and remembered for years. Here, in an anthology of some of the finest of the genre, brilliant creative minds in every sector offer their wisdom: David Foster Wallace on living a compassionate life, Debbie Millman on the importance of taking risks, Michael Lewis on the responsibility that good fortune merits—and so many other greats. Some of this advice is grand (believe in the impossible), and some of it is granular enough to check off a life list (donate five percent of your money or your time). All of it is universally uplifting. Handsomely packaged with a cloth spine and energetic typography throughout, this book is a smart, special gift for graduates and anyone embarking on a new adventure.

From Rain to Rainbows

This sweet and modern little gift book proves that after the rain always comes the rainbow. A treasure trove of delightful work by favorite indie art stars and emerging talents, this cheering collection echoes the uplifting transformation of rain into rainbows: the book begins with raindrops and umbrellas, transitions midway through, and concludes with a glorious bouquet of colorful rainbows. Perfect for bringing smiles to anyone who needs a little pick-me-up, this petite book of feel-good art is a reminder to appreciate the dark with the light, because nothing stays the same forever—and things are about to look a whole lot brighter.

The Eat Like a Man Guide to Feeding a Crowd

How to Cook for Family, Friends, and Spontaneous Parties
Foreword by Bryan Voltaggio • Introduction by David Granger

This welcome follow-up to Esquire's wildly popular Eat Like a Man cookbook is the ultimate resource for guys who want to host big crowds and need the scaled-up recipes, logistical advice, and mojo to pull it off whether they're cooking breakfast for a houseful of weekend guests, producing an epic spread for the playoffs, or planning the backyard BBQ that trumps all. With tantalizing photos and about 100 recipes for lazy breakfasts, afternoon noshing, dinner spreads, and late-night binges—including loads of favorites from chefs who know how to satisfy a crowd, such as Linton Hopkins, Edward Lee, and Michael Symon—this is the only cookbook a man will ever need when the party is at his place.

SANDWICH IDEAS FOR LEFTOVER ROAST PORK

- 1 With sunny-side-up eggs and roasted tomato salsa on a Kaiser roll
- 2 With dressed arugula, sliced fresh mozzarella, and sliced tomatoes on a sub roll
- 3 With sautéed greens and grated Parmesan on toasted crusty bread
- 4 With pickled hot peppers and shredded lettuce with Italian dressing on a hoagie roll

Bryan Voltaggio is the executive chef and owner of five restaurants, a Top Chef and Top Chef Masters finalist, and a cookbook author.

David Granger is the editor in chief of Esquire.

The Art of Inside Out

Foreword by Amy Poehler • Introduction by Pete Docter

The Art of Inside Out explores the making of Pixar's upcoming film Inside Out, set in the most extraordinary location—inside the mind of an 11-year-old girl. This book reflects the creativity and artistry of what promises to be one of Pixar's most ambitious works to date. Featuring concept art—including sketches, storyboards, color scripts, and much more—and opening with a foreword by actress Amy Poehler, this is the ultimate behind-the-scenes experience of the making of the film.

Amy Poehler is an actress, producer, director, and author. She currently stars on the Emmy-nominated Parks and Recreation and appeared for seven seasons on Saturday Night Live.

Pete Docter is vice president of creative at Pixar Animation Studios and the writer and director of Disney•Pixar's Inside Out. He directed the Academy Award®-winning feature films Monsters, Inc. and Up, and also worked as an animator, screenwriter, and voice actor. He lives in Piedmont, California.

See for Yourself

A Visual Guide to Everyday Beauty • By Rob Forbes

This accessible handbook from design guru Rob Forbes uncovers the beauty in the commonplace and reveals how visual thinking can enrich our lives. In friendly text complemented by photographs taken on his travels around the world, Forbes explains how to appreciate the design elements that surround us in the built environment. Linking broad concepts such as composition and materiality to quotidian details such as the play of color in hanging laundry or the repeated forms in a row of ice cream scoops, Forbes reveals how an appreciation of the hues, patterns, and textures that surround us can enhance a life well lived. See for Yourself is essential reading to see more clearly, think more visually, and enjoy the world more deeply.

Rob Forbes is best known as the founder of Design Within Reach and Public Bikes. He lives in San Francisco.

PRAISE FOR THIS IS RIDICULOUS THIS IS AMAZING:

“Jason Good might be known casually as the Dad blogger who made it big, but that’s simplifying things. His blog is great, but his first book is even better.”

—PARADE.COM

Rock, Meet Window

A Father–Son Story • By Jason Good

This funny and poignant memoir from celebrated family-man blogger Jason Good delves into the magic, fails, and meaning of fatherhood. Here he shares the story of his father, a charismatic, communicative, and affectionate man who taught him how to live and how to be a dad to his own two young sons. The moment Jason was told he would lose his father to cancer, and the year that followed, inspired him to reflect on how an imperfect father can be perfection in all the ways that matter in the end. Exploring the highs, lows, and complications of fatherhood with tenderness and humor, Rock, Meet Window will have fathers (and mothers, too) thinking about those extraordinary qualities that make a good father so special to us all.

Jason Good, also the author of This Is Ridiculous This Is Amazing, is a writer, comedian, family man, and the blogger behind JasonGood.net and the viral posts “3 Minutes Inside the Head of My 2-Year Old” and “46 Reasons My Three-Year-Old Might Be Freaking Out.” He lives in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Waste-Free Kitchen Handbook

A guide to eating well and saving money by wasting less food

Dana Gunders

Waste-Free Kitchen Handbook

A Guide to Eating Well and Saving Money by Wasting Less Food

By Dana Gunders of the Natural Resources Defense Council

Despite a growing awareness of food waste, many well-intentioned home cooks lack the tools to change their habits. This handbook—packed with engaging checklists, simple recipes, practical strategies, and educational infographics—is the ultimate tool for reducing food waste. From a scientist at the Natural Resources Defense Council come these everyday techniques that call for minimal adjustments of habit, from shopping, portioning, and using a refrigerator properly to simple preservation methods including freezing, pickling, and cellaring. At once a good read and a go-to reference, this handy guide is chock-full of helpful facts and tips, including 20 “use-it-up” recipes and a substantial directory of common foods.

Dana Gunders is a project scientist working on food and agriculture with the Natural Resources Defense Council. She is based in Berkeley, California.

TEN KEY ELEMENTS OF MEAL PLANNING

While it may be obvious that meal planning involves choosing meals to eat for the week and creating a shopping list for those meals, a handful of not-so-obvious tips can make the process more effective.

- Check the refrigerator.
- Choose building blocks.
- Think double duty.
- Go fresh first.
- Cook batches and freeze.
- Schedule in a lazy night.
- Lean on frozen ingredients.
- Use portion planners.
- Have kitchen essentials on hand.
- Don't start from scratch.

FOUR BRIGHT IDEAS

1. Keep healthful snacks in plain view on the top shelf to encourage good eating habits.
2. Put meat, poultry, and fish on trays, so their fluids don't drip into drawers below.
3. Arrange the contents so that you can see everything. That way you won't open a new jar of salsa when there's one already lurking in the back.
4. Use an “Eat Me First” sign to indicate what needs to be used up.

"There has never been a better time to be a pot smoker."
—from the Introduction

Green

A Field Guide to Marijuana

By Dan Michaels • Photographs by Erik Christiansen

Green: A Field Guide to Marijuana is required reading for a new generation of curious and sophisticated pot smokers. Presented in an eye-popping package and filled with hyper-detailed photography of individual buds, this essential guide to marijuana is smart, practical, and exceedingly beautiful. The "Primer" section explores the culture of this complex flower and explains the botany that makes each strain unique. The "Buds" section describes the variations of lineage, flavor, and mental or physical high that define 170 exceptional strains. Poised to become the go-to marijuana guide for recreational and medicinal users alike, Green is easy to pick up and impossible to put down.

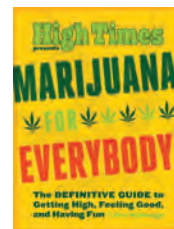

Dan Michaels is the founder of SenseMedia, a cannabis research and insight group. Alongside his savvy branding and marketing background, he brings his experience and connoisseurship in cannabis culture to his work as a consultant and strategist for the emerging legal marijuana industry. He lives in Connecticut.

Erik Christiansen uses specialized macro photography and color correction techniques to capture the true essence of the marijuana flower with unparalleled detail. Erik founded and currently runs Nugshots.com, a photography blog dedicated to showcasing the varied beauty of the cannabis flower. He lives in California.

Ciao Biscotti

Sweet and Savory Recipes Celebrating Italy's Favorite Cookie
By Domenica Marchetti • Photographs by Antonis Achilleos

Studded with nuts, dipped in chocolate, or dotted with dried fruit, Italy's unique twice-baked cookies have enduring appeal. Now Domenica Marchetti shows us how easy they are to make. One chapter swaps in savory ingredients, creating a delicious accent to a cheese platter. From traditional flavors (Hazelnut or Anise) and coffeehouse neoclassics (Cranberry-Pistachio) to tempting new versions (Browned Butter and Toblerone) and savory selections (Mountain Gorgonzola and Walnut), each enticing cookie offers a taste of heaven.

Domenica Marchetti is the author of five books, most recently The Glorious Vegetables of Italy. Her articles about Italian home cooking have appeared in Food & Wine, Fine Cooking, the Washington Post, and many other publications. She lives in Alexandria, Virginia.

The Everyday Rice Cooker

Soups, Sides, Grains, Mains, and More

By Diane Phillips • Photographs by Jennifer Causey

For those who think a rice cooker is a one-hit wonder, it's time to think again. Lemon Chicken Soup with Orzo? Mixed Mushroom and Bulgur Risotto? Sausage and Broccoli Rabe with Farro? Yes, all can be made in a rice cooker! This practical cookbook details methods for preparing basic grains and collects 85 soups, stews, salads, side dishes, and complete meals, including lots of options for vegetarians and pescatarians. And the information on how to use a rice cooker to its fullest advantage—from basic, no-frills models to high-tech fuzzy-logic machines—makes it easy to put satisfying, delicious meals on the weeknight dinner table with minimal effort and maximum speed.

Diane Phillips is a cooking instructor, food consultant, and award-winning cookbook author. She lives in San Diego, California.

Good girls have good mothers. Extraordinary girls have extraordinary mothers. But deeply troubled girls?

Oh, the old me knew all about them.

Too much violence on the television. (Sad head shake.)
Too much sugar. (Wise nod.) Too much pressure to leave childhood behind. Not enough laughter. Not enough fun.

The old me had read the parenting books.
The old me had an answer for everything.

Hope and Other Luxuries

A Mother's Life with a Daughter's Anorexia • By Clare B. Dunkle

Clare Dunkle seemed to have an ideal life—two beautiful, high-achieving teenage daughters, a loving husband, and a satisfying and successful career as a children's book novelist. But it's when you let down your guard that the ax falls. Just after one daughter successfully conquered her depression, another daughter developed a life-threatening eating disorder. Co-published with Elena Vanishing, the memoir of her daughter, this is the story—told in brave, beautifully written, and unflinchingly honest prose—of one family's fight against a deadly disease, from an often ignored but important perspective: the mother of the anorexic.

Clare B. Dunkle is an award-winning author of seven acclaimed fantasy novels, including The Hollow Kingdom Trilogy, winner of the 2004 Mythopoeic Award for Best Children's Fantasy. A former Texan (and Texas librarian), Clare now lives in Germany.

Welcome the Day

By Emma Giuliani

This enchanting accordion book invites us to see the beauty in every moment. On each page, a peek behind a flap or a turn of a wheel makes flowers bloom and brings color to a black-and-white landscape: a field blossoms with thanks for the warmth of the sun; a single bud opens in a gesture of love; a tree blooms, celebrating the passage of time. The visual poem that unfolds reveals the wonder that is ever-present in the circle of life, waiting to be discovered if we only look for it. Welcome the Day eloquently shares a heartwarming truth through creative paper engineering that will delight readers of all ages.

Emma Giuliani is a graphic designer based just outside of Paris. She is the recipient of a mention for Bologna Ragazzi Opera Prima, for the French edition of Welcome the Day.

A Teacup Collection

Paintings of Porcelain Treasures

By Molly Hatch • Essay by Kathleen Morris

In paintings as pretty as the porcelain they depict, this gift book celebrates one of the finest teacup collections in the world: the 300-piece archive of the Clark Art Institute, which dates back to the eighteenth century and represents coveted designs of the day from Europe and China. Artist Molly Hatch, with exclusive access to this largely unviewed collection, pored over the details of each cup to create this visual treat. Including page after page of paintings of the cups, and led off by introductory essays, this is both an intriguing reflection on the art of collecting and an utterly charming gift for tea drinkers and teacup collectors.

Molly Hatch is an artist known for her surface pattern designs and ceramics. She lives in Northampton, Massachusetts.

Kathleen Morris is director of exhibitions and curator of decorative arts at the Clark Art Institute in Williamstown, Massachusetts.

Artists and Their Cats

By Alison Nastasi

Pablo Picasso, Andy Warhol, Frida Kahlo . . . so many great artists have shared one very special love: the companionship of cats. Gathered here for the first time are behind-the-scenes stories of more than 50 famous artists and their feline friends. From Salvador Dali's pet ocelot Babou to John Lennon and Yoko Ono's menagerie of cats, including Salt (who was black) and Pepper (who was white), Artists and Their Cats captures these endearing friendships in charming photographs and engaging text, and reveals what creative souls and the animals best known for their independent spirits have in common. In this clever compilation, art aficionados will discover a softer side of their favorite artists, and cat lovers will enjoy a whole new way to celebrate their favorite furry friends.

Alison Nastasi is an artist and journalist based in Philadelphia. She writes for MTV and Flavorwire.

Sock Monkeys Have Issues

By Greg Stones

Sock Monkeys have issues with moths. They also have trouble with pterodactyls, home improvement projects, kittens (who tend to unravel them), and paparazzi. They really like bananas, jet packs, sock puppies, and romance, but have MAJOR issues with clowns, embarrassing relatives (King Kong), and gym socks. Through it all, they really adore one thing. Author of the breakout hit Zombies Hate Stuff, Greg Stones turns his popular, playfully absurd illustration style and subversive humor to the lovable but issue-fraught world of sock monkeys, detailing their inner lives and misadventures with a playful wit that will appeal to cheeky monkeys of all ages.

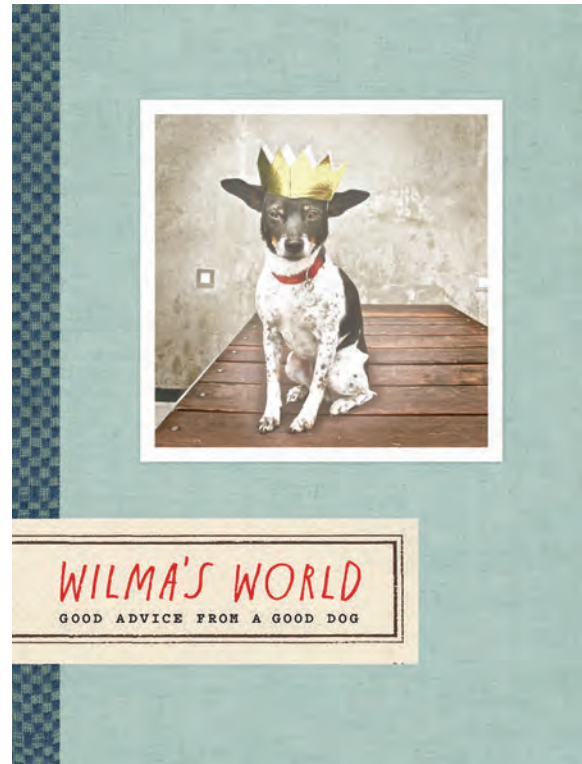

Greg Stones is an artist and the author of Zombies Hate Stuff, Penguins Hate Stuff, and Zombies Have Issues. He lives and works in Rhode Island.

An Eclectic Collection Deserving of a Wider Audience
Compiled by Shaun Usher

Lists of Note curates 125 unputdownable entries from a list of names that are as eclectic and intriguing as its contents, which include myriad reasons given by ancient Egyptians for missing work, Albert Einstein's demands of his estranged wife, F. Scott Fitzgerald's extensive conjugation of "to cocktail," and many more. Rarely intended for the public eye, these lists reveal hopes, priorities, and musings in a most engaging and entertaining way. Each transcript is accompanied by an artwork, most a captivating facsimile of the list itself. Richly visual and irresistibly readable, Lists of Note is a testament to the human urge to bring order to, poke fun at, and find meaning in the world around us—and is a gift of endless enjoyment and lasting value.

Shaun Usher founded the blog-based archives Letters of Note and Lists of Note, hugely popular internationally. He lives in Manchester, UK.

I Was an Awesomer Kid

By Brad Getty

Face it: You were awesome when you were a kid. You feared nothing. You spoke your mind. You tried new things. You had imagination. Now you play by the rules, dress appropriately, and choose politeness over self-expression. Well, life's too short for that and this book proves it. Vintage photographs of real kids doing awesome stuff—wearing footie pj's, eating sugar cereal, napping, and showing off—accompany witty captions that poke fun at the doldrums of adult life and remind us to unleash our inner kid. With a hilarious dose of 80s and 90s nostalgia, just enough snark, and an ultimately uplifting message, I Was an Awesomer Kid is a great gift for all who are young at heart . . . or wish they still were!

Brad Getty is the author of Dads Are the Original Hipsters. He is an advertising copywriter and lives in Montreal.

Energy That Is All Around

Mission School: Chris Johanson, Margaret Kilgallen, Alicia McCarthy, Barry McGee, Ruby Neri • By San Francisco Art Institute

This in-depth look at one of San Francisco's most renowned art groups showcases the work of five artists who emerged out of San Francisco's Mission district in the early 1990s, and by the early 2000s were internationally known as "Mission School" artists. Created in conjunction with an exhibition at San Francisco Art Institute, this book reexamines the careers of Chris Johanson, Margaret Kilgallen, Alicia McCarthy, Barry McGee, and Ruby Neri, connecting early works and ephemera with new work created especially for the show. With essays from curators and critics, this unprecedented book explores the origins and evolution of this influential group of artists.

San Francisco Art Institute is one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious art schools.

Blue

Cobalt to Cerulean in Art and Culture
From the Collection of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston

Blue, the world's favorite color, is elegantly showcased in more than 200 artworks from the collection of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Representing a diversity of movements, cultures, and media that spans the ages and the globe, the objects in Blue range from ancient Egyptian jewelry and traditional Japanese prints to Impressionist paintings and indigo-dyed textiles. Short essays from museum curators on the significance and symbolism of the color at various times and places provide historical context for this visual feast. With page edges dyed blue, this distinctive volume is a bijoux treasure.

The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, is one of the most comprehensive art museums in the world.

Ai Wei Wei on Alcatraz • Edited by David Spalding

Internationally renowned Chinese artist and activist Ai Weiwei is one of contemporary art's most newsworthy figures, noted for both his groundbreaking work and his outspoken stance on human rights, which ultimately resulted in his controversial 2011 detainment. In an astonishing new large-scale project, he turns his attention to Alcatraz—a place he cannot visit because he is not permitted to leave China, but that stands as a world-famous symbol of both incarceration and protest. This book showcases a major exhibition of site-specific, multimedia installations and sculptures Ai Weiwei has created for the island, on view from the fall of 2014 through the spring of 2015. Featuring beautiful photographs and thought-provoking text, At Large is the essential document of this remarkable happening from one of today's most celebrated artists.

The Egyptian Book of the Dead Revised Edition: The Book of Going Forth By Day

Translated by Raymond Faulkner • Commentary by Dr. Ogden Goelet, Jr. • Preface by Carol A.R. Andrews • Survey by J. Daniel Gunther

For millennia, the culture of the ancient Egyptians has fascinated historians and spiritual seekers. The 20th anniversary edition of this seminal work includes all-new material analyzing the progress in modern Egyptology. Written some 3,500 years ago, the Papyrus of Ani is the best-preserved example of Egyptian thought. Including full-color hieroglyphic images paired with an acclaimed translation and two gatefold spreads that showcase the papyrus's elaborately bordered images. This sumptuous edition brings to life one of humanity's finest spiritual treasures.

Raymond Faulkner (1894–1982) was a renowned British Egyptologist, the translator of many key Egyptological texts.

Dr. Ogden Goelet, Jr., is associate research scholar of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies at New York University.

Are You Dissing Me?

What Animals Really Think • By Simon Winheld

A hippo worries that her MFA is totally useless. A cardinal has roommate problems. A hummingbird is eager to join a social network. A bush baby teeters on the edge (You wanna throw down?!) Here for the first time are the innermost thoughts of our furry and feathered friends, who—it is finally revealed—humorously share the same anxieties, frustrations, and preoccupations as we do. Whether it's a raccoon fretting about his judgmental friends, a buffalo impatiently waiting for his dumplings, or a sloth contemplating a career in stand-up comedy, each colorfully illustrated critter captures a moment of modern flux—and together they create an irresistibly funny portrait of a kingdom both wild and amusingly familiar.

Simon Winheld is an illustrator and actor who lives in New York. This is his first book.

Flip again and the perfect phrase for any occasion is ready to be written on hand-cut fortunes and inserted into delicious homemade fortune cookies. Also included are both Basic and Chocolate Fortune Cookie recipes with flavor variations, along with cookie folding instructions and decoration ideas.

Lollipop Love

Sweet Indulgence with Chocolate, Caramel, and Sugar

By Anita Chu • Photographs by Antonis Achilleos

Brightly colored lollipops are the perfect sweet for children and adults alike—and now these whimsical treats can be made with ease in the home kitchen. Showcasing recipes for every kind of lolly imaginable, the techniques for layering, coloring, and swirling will result in indulgences as beautiful as they are delicious. This inspired little book delivers flavor ideas that go from basic sugar to Almond Butter Crunch to Chocolate-Dipped Peppermint Cream and so much more! For anyone with a penchant for enjoying sugar on a stick, Lollipop Love is the newest authority for making yummy, shareable candies.

Anita Chu is a graduate of Tante Marie’s Professional Pastry Program, a former baker for Bittersweet Chocolate Café, and a cookbook author. She channels her love of sweets, writing, and photography into the award-winning website Dessert First.

Icebox Cakes

Recipes for the Coolest Cakes in Town

By Jean Sagendorph and Jessie Sheehan • Photographs by Tara Donne

Icebox cakes feature crisp wafers and billowy whipped cream layered together and chilled overnight, where they transform into a heavenly cakelike texture. In this tempting cookbook, eager cooks can start with the Old School, a classic pairing of chocolate wafers and lush whipped cream, before moving on to fantastic combinations such as Luscious Lemon with its lemon curd filling and ladyfingers or the Black Forest's cherries and mounds of chocolate-kirsch whipped cream. Ideal when made a day or two in advance, these minimum-fuss cakes promise maximum friends-and-family cheer.

Jean Sagendorph is a literary agent, author, and icebox cake expert. She lives in New York.

Jessie Sheehan is a former assistant pastry chef at Baked, the Redhook, New York, bakery. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

Unexpected Art

Serendipitous Installations, Site-Specific Works, and Surprising Interventions • Edited by Jenny Moussa Spring
Preface by Florentijn Hofman • Introduction by Christian L. Frock

Graffiti made from cake icing, man-made clouds floating indoors, a luminous moon resting on water. Collected here are dozens of jaw-dropping artworks—site-specific installations, extraordinary sculptures, and groundbreaking interventions in public spaces—that reveal the exciting things that happen when contemporary artists play with the idea of place. Unexpected Art showcases the wonderfully experimental work of more than 50 innovative artists from around the world in galleries of their most astonishing artworks. An unusual package with three different-colored page edges complements the art inside and makes this tour of the world's most mind-blowing artwork a beautiful and thought-provoking gift for anyone interested in the next cool thing.

Jenny Moussa Spring is a freelance image editor and writer living in San Francisco.

Florentijn Hofman is a Netherlands-based artist internationally renowned for his giant sculptures based on everyday objects.

Christian L. Frock is an independent curator and writer based in the San Francisco Bay Area.

100 Years of Boeing • By Russ Banham

Over the course of a century, the Boeing Company has grown from a small outfit operating out of a converted boathouse—producing a single pontoon plane made from canvas and wood—into the world’s largest aerospace company. The thrilling story of the celebrated organization is one filled with ambition, ingenuity, and a passion to exceed expectations. In this lavishly illustrated book, published to coincide with Boeing’s 100th anniversary, Pulitzer Prize–nominated author Russ Banham recounts the tale of a company and an industry like no other—one that has put men on the moon, defended the free world, and changed the way we live.

Russ Banham is a Pulitzer Prize–nominated journalist and the author of 23 books. He lives in Los Angeles, California.

All New Awesomely Wrong Test Answers • By Richard Benson

Will some students ever learn from their mistakes? We hope not! This all-new collection of hilarious, totally wrong, real test answers serves a fresh batch of A+ wit misapplied to F- quiz scores. A little studying would reveal that the most powerful light source known to man isn't "lightsabers," nor do we salt the roads when it snows "to make them taste better." But where's the fun in that? From the same well-spring of failure as the million-selling F in Exams series, this special pop quiz collection will amuse and entertain anyone preparing to face down a test paper as well as those just glad to be far away from a classroom.

Cat High

The Yearbook • By Terry deRoy Gruber

This hilarious parody yearbook explores the ups and downs of a year in the life of the senior class cats at Paw Paw High School. This active senior class did a lot in their last year of high school: The Glee Club Meowlers recorded their first album, “Songs to Lick Fur To,” the drama club performed Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, the Ratters football coach, Fred Ball Whiskers, retired, and Sophie McMeow was voted “Most Chased.” Filled with cat class photos, candid shots, and handwritten notes to the yearbook’s owner, Nelson “Gill” Fish, Cat High revives the classic parody yearbook in all its black-and-white, feline-filled glory.

Terry deRoy Gruber is an award-winning wedding photographer, fine art photographer, and cat book author. He lives in New York with his wife, two kids, and two cats.

CHILDREN'S

The epic saga...

Star Wars Epic Yarns

By Jack and Holman Wang

Jedi apprentices and little princesses will delight in this (heart)felt retelling of the Star Wars saga. And so will Star Wars fans of any age! The series launches with the original trilogy, and every word counts in these small but perfectly formed yarns. That's because each volume features 12 iconic scenes, handcrafted in felt and pithily summarized in just a single word. The attention to detail is eye-opening; the proportions are just-right for small hands; the fun is guaranteed.

Jack and Holman Wang are twin brothers who grew up in Vancouver, British Columbia, where Holman still lives. As well as being the creators of the Cozy Classics board books, Jack is a professor of writing at Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York, and Holman, a former middle school teacher, is an artist and author.

Polar Bear lost his underwear... Who's underwear is this?

Polar Bear's Underwear

By tupera tupera

Polar Bear has lost his underwear! Where could it be? There's only one thing to do: Remove the book's underwear-shaped bellyband to find the missing pair! Is that Polar Bear's underwear? No, it's Zebra's—see the colorful stripes? What about that itty-bitty pair? No, those belong to Butterfly! And so the search continues, with every page revealing an animal in eye-popping undies. This laugh-out-loud, one-of-a-kind novelty book from Japanese design talents tupera tupera will surprise and amuse children and their parents, all while affirming the importance of putting on your underwear.

tupera tupera is the Tokyo-based art and design firm of artists Tatsuya Kameyama and Atsuko Nakagawa. They are also the author and illustrator of Make Faces.

Interstellar Cinderella

By Deborah Underwood • Illustrated by Meg Hunt

*Once upon a planetoid,
amid her tools and sprockets,
a girl named Cinderella dreamed
of fixing fancy rockets.*

With a little help from her fairy godrobot, Cinderella is going to the ball. But when the prince's ship has mechanical trouble, someone will have to zoom to the rescue! Readers will thank their lucky stars for this irrepressible fairy tale retelling, its independent heroine, and its stellar happy ending.

Deborah Underwood is the author of The Quiet Book (a New York Times bestseller and one of Publishers Weekly's Best Books of 2010) and The Loud Book. Deborah lives in San Francisco.

Meg Hunt is an illustrator, printmaker, educator, and all-around maker of things. Meg lives and works in Portland, Oregon. This is her first picture book.

Once upon a planetoid,
amid her tools and sprockets,
a girl named Cinderella dreamed
of fixing fancy rockets.

"I'm here—your fairy godrobot!
I'll make you brand new tools.
You'll need a space suit, too, of course:
atomic blue! With jewels!

This power gem will speed your ship across the starry sky.
It only lasts till midnight—
after that, your ship won't fly."

Beach House

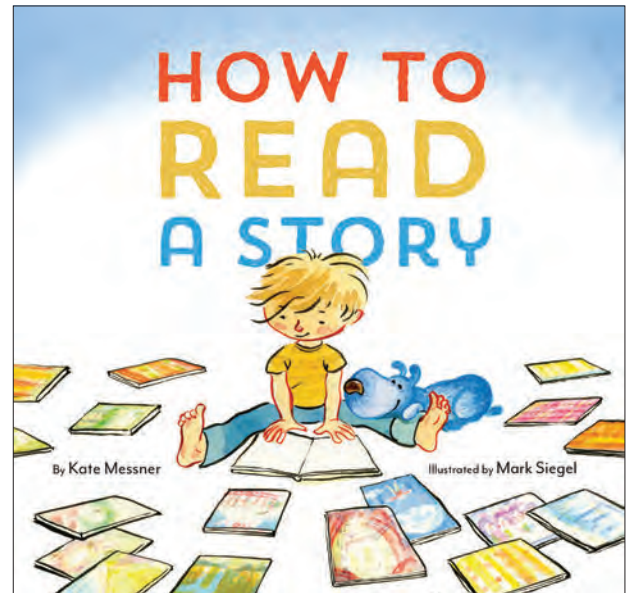

By Deanna Caswell • Illustrated by Amy June Bates

*A long, long drive.
It's been a year
of dreaming, waiting.
Now, summer's here.*

In a funny and heartfelt celebration of family, vacations, and the joy of the sea, Deanna Caswell and Amy June Bates capture the essence of summer—building sand castles, jumping the waves, and watching the stars come out after a long day at the beach—and the love that warms every moment.

Deanna Caswell is an award-winning picture book author. She lives with 8 chickens, half as many children, and a very understanding husband in Collierville, Tennessee.

Amy June Bates is a freelance children's book illustrator. Amy grew up in Utah and got a degree in Illustration from Brigham Young University. She lives with her 3 children and husband in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

How to Read a Story

By Kate Messner • Illustrated by Mark Siegel

Step One: Find a story. (A good one.)
Step Two: Find a reading buddy. (Someone nice.)
Step Three: Find a reading spot. (Couches are cozy.)
Now: Begin.

Accomplished storytellers Kate Messner and Mark Siegel chronicle the process of becoming a reader: from pulling a book off the shelf and finding someone with whom to share a story, to reading aloud, predicting what will happen, and—finally—coming to The End. This picture book playfully and movingly illustrates the idea that the reader who discovers the love of reading finds, at the end, the beginning.

Kate Messner is a middle school teacher and award-winning author. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

Mark Siegel is the author and illustrator of several acclaimed books for children and adults.

Kindergarten Luck

By Louise Borden • Illustrated by Genevieve Godbout

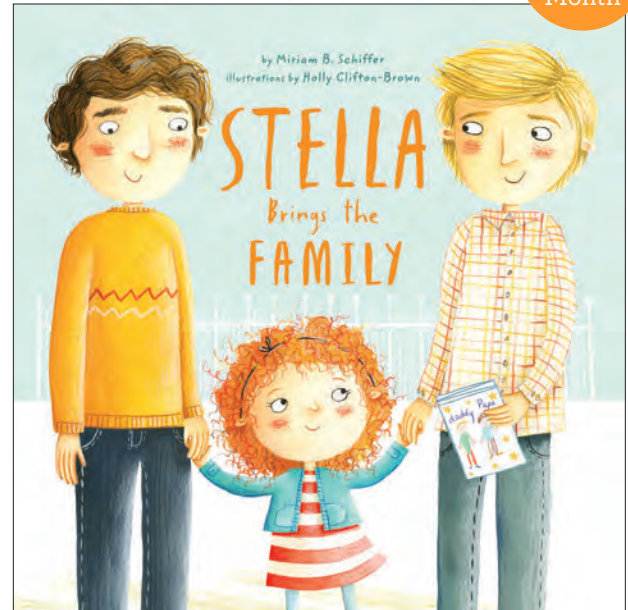

What makes a lucky day?

One gloomy morning, Theodore found a bright, shiny penny on the way down to breakfast. There was Abraham Lincoln, face up. What luck! "Oh THANK you, Mr. Famous President!" Theodore said. And he tucked that shiny, new penny in his pocket.

Follow Theodore through a day bursting with the simple joys and endless verve of young children—a reminder of how much luck abounds in the world, and how sometimes, it's just waiting to be found.

Louise Borden is the author of many books for children. She lives with her husband in Ohio and spends summers in northern Michigan.

Genevieve Godbout is an acclaimed international children's book illustrator. She lives in Montreal, where she works as a freelance illustrator for numerous clients.

Stella Brings the Family

By Miriam B. Schiffer • Illustrated by Holly Clifton-Brown

Stella's class is having a Mother's Day celebration, but what's a girl with two daddies to do? It's not that she doesn't have someone who helps her with her homework, or tucks her in at night. Stella has her Papa and Daddy who take care of her, and a whole gaggle of other loved ones who make her feel special and supported every day. She just doesn't have a mom to invite to the party. Fortunately, Stella finds a unique solution to her party problem in this sweet story about love, acceptance, and the true meaning of family.

Miriam B. Schiffer is a co-author of the children's book review column "The Reading Chair" in Young Children, a journal of the National Association for the Education of Young Children. This is her first book for children. She lives in Brooklyn.

Holly Clifton-Brown has a degree in illustration from the University of the West of England and has illustrated many books for children. She lives in London.

Up in the Garden and Down in the Dirt

By Kate Messner • Illustrated by Christopher Silas Neal

In this exuberant and lyrical follow-up to the award-winning Over and Under the Snow, discover the wonders that lie hidden between stalks, under the shade of leaves . . . and down in the dirt. Explore the hidden world and many lives of a garden through the course of a year! Up in the garden, the world is full of green—leaves and sprouts, growing vegetables, ripening fruit. But down in the dirt exists a busy world—earthworms dig, snakes hunt, skunks burrow—populated by all the animals that make a garden their home.

Kate Messner is the award-winning author of Over and Under the Snow, Sea Monster's First Day, Sea Monster and the Bossy Fish, and more than a dozen other books for young readers. Kate lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

Christopher Silas Neal is an award-winning illustrator whose work is published regularly in the New York Times and shown in galleries. He teaches illustration at Pratt Institute and lives in Brooklyn, New York.

A Nest Is Noisy

By Dianna Hutts Aston • Illustrated by Sylvia Long

From the award-winning creators of An Egg Is Quiet, A Seed Is Sleepy, A Butterfly Is Patient, and A Rock Is Lively comes this gorgeous and informative look at the fascinating world of nests. From tiny bee hummingbird nests to orangutan nests high in the rainforest canopy, an incredible variety of nests are showcased here in all their splendor. Poetic in voice and elegant in design, this carefully researched book introduces children to a captivating array of nest facts and will spark the imaginations of children whether in a classroom reading circle or on a parent’s lap.

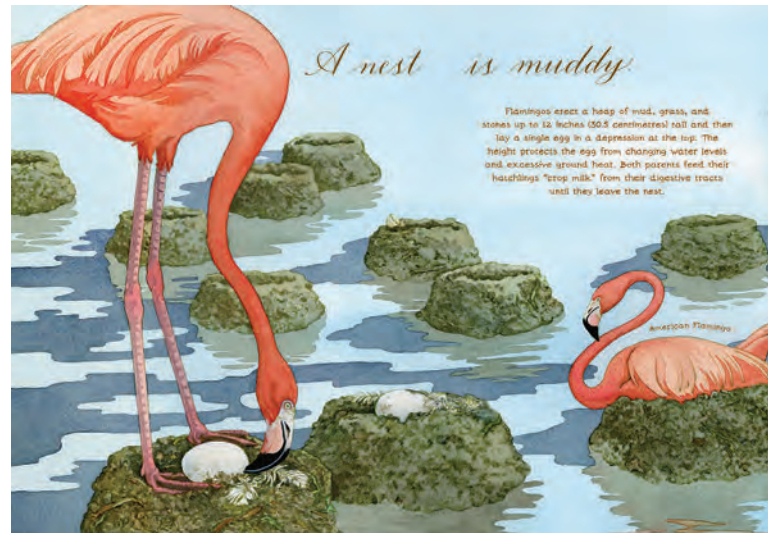

Dianna Hutts Aston is the author of many books for children and is the founder of the Oz Project, a nonprofit foundation for disadvantaged children. She lives on an island off the coast of Texas.

Sylvia Long is the illustrator of many bestselling books for children, including Sylvia Long’s Mother Goose and Hush Little Baby. She lives in Scottsdale, Arizona, with her husband and their dogs.

★ “A lovely mix of science and wonder.”

Jurassic Farts

A Spotter's Guide • By P. U. Rippley • Illustrated by Evan Palmer

In prehistoric times, majestic dinosaurs walked the earth. Though long extinct, one important question remains—did dinosaurs fart? You bet! From booming Brachiosaurus to the terrible tooting T. Rex, this amusing handbook not only includes stats on the funniest dinosaur farts but also the sound effects that go with them. Just push the button on the battery-powered fart machine and let 'er rip!

P. U. Rippley has been named Fartsperson of the Year five times by the Royal Fartological Society and has been called as an expert witness (on farts) by jurisdictions all over the world. He lives in an undisclosed location with his trained box turtle, Donald.

Evan Palmer works by day as a digital media producer of interactive and animated content at PUNY. By night, he is a cartoonist and illustrator who creates and publishes his own original comics about wizards, robots, and cooking. He lives in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The Land of Lines

By Victor Hussenot

In the land of lines, anything is possible: the connection between a boy and a girl from different worlds, the potential for self-discovery, and the vanquishing of a monster. While exploring mysterious terrain, the characters cascade down geometric cliffs and mountains, navigating the unknown and finding their potential. Readers will immerse themselves in this engaging wordless graphic novel that captures the timeless heroic journey and celebrates the power of art.

Victor Hussenot is an illustrator whose work is published widely in Europe. The Land of Lines is his third graphic novel. He lives in Paris, France.

Farewell Floppy

By Benjamin Chaud

It was the perfect plan: abandon pet rabbit Floppy in the woods and take a giant leap toward adulthood. Having a bunny that moonlights as a best friend is for babies, right? It's better to cut a pet loose, make new human friends, and not be so dependent on a floppy-eared fur ball bent on chewing electrical cords, right? If saying good-bye to Floppy is required to grow up, why does life without Floppy seem so wrong? From Benjamin Chaud, the critically acclaimed author/illustrator of The Bear's Song and The Bear's Sea Escape, comes this unforgettable, thought-provoking picture book about the power of unlikely friendships.

Benjamin Chaud is a well-known French author and illustrator of more than 60 books, including the New York Times Notable Book The Bear's Song. He is also the illustrator of I Didn't Do My Homework Because . . . and A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to School . . . He lives in the southeast of France.

The spirited sequel to I Didn't Do My Homework Because . . .

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to School . . .

By Davide Cali • Illustrated by Benjamin Chaud

First, some giant ants steal breakfast.

Then there are the evil ninjas, massive ape, mysterious mole people, giant blob, and countless other daunting (and astonishing) detours along the way to school. Are these excuses really why this student is late? Or is there another explanation that is even more outrageous than the rest? From Davide Cali and Benjamin Chaud, the critically acclaimed author/illustrator team behind I Didn't Do My Homework Because . . . comes a fast-paced, action-packed, laugh-out-loud story about finding the way to school despite the odds—and the unbelievable oddness!

Then, on the way to the bus stop, I was attacked by evil ninjas.

And then—out of nowhere—a massive ape appeared and mistook the school bus for a banana.

Praise for I Didn't Do My Homework Because . . .

A haunting new YA novel from National Book Award Finalist Beth Kephart

WHAT IS THE NAME OF THIS DISEASE, THE
NAME FOR THE GIRL WHO BUILDS NESTS
WITH STOLEN THINGS, WHO SEES WHAT OTHERS DO NOT SEE, WHO CAN BARELY,
HARDLY SPEAK?

One Thing Stolen

By Beth Kephart

Something is not right with Nadia Cara. While spending a year in Florence, Italy, she's become a thief. She has secrets. And when she tries to speak, the words seem far away. Nadia finds herself trapped by her own obsessions and following the trail of an elusive Italian boy whom only she has seen. Can Nadia be rescued or will she simply lose herself altogether? Set against the backdrop of a glimmering city, One Thing Stolen is an exploration of obsession, art, and a rare neurological disorder. It is a celebration of language, beauty, imagination, and the salvation of love.

Beth Kephart is the award-winning author of books for both adults and young readers, including Going Over, You Are My Only, Small Damages, and Handling the Truth. She lives in Devon, Pennsylvania.

“This isn’t the story of anorexia nervosa. It’s the story of a person. It’s the story of Elena Dunkle, a remarkable young woman who fights her demons with grit and determination. Elena is a fighter, a survivor—but never a victim. This is an inside view of her life-and-death struggle with anorexia nervosa: what she once called “the good girl’s suicide.”

—Clare B. Dunkle

“I loved this book and read it compulsively. An intense, fascinating read containing all the nitty-gritty details of anorexia. I’m looking forward to hand selling this one.”

Elena Vanishing

A Memoir • By Elena and Clare B. Dunkle

Seventeen-year-old Elena is vanishing. Every day means renewed determination, so every day means fewer calories. This is the story of a girl whose armor against anxiety becomes artillery against herself as she battles on both sides of a lose-lose war in a struggle with anorexia. Told entirely from Elena’s perspective over a five-year period and co-written with her mother, award-winning author Clare B. Dunkle, Elena’s memoir is a fascinating and intimate look at a deadly disease, and a must read for anyone who knows someone suffering from an eating disorder.

Elena Dunkle is a recovering anorexic. This is her first book.

Clare B. Dunkle is an award-winning author of seven acclaimed fantasy novels, including The Hollow Kingdom Trilogy, winner of the 2004 Mythopoeic Award for Best Children’s Fantasy. A former Texan (and Texas librarian), Clare now lives in Germany.

Two Children's Poets Laureate team up!

Bigfoot Is Missing!

By J. Patrick Lewis and Kenn Nesbitt • Illustrated by Minalima

Children's Poets Laureate J. Patrick Lewis and Kenn Nesbitt team up to offer a smart, stealthy tour of the creatures of shadowy myth and fearsome legend—the enticing, the humorous, and the strange. Bigfoot, the Mongolian Death Worm, and the Loch Ness Monster number among the many creatures lurking within these pages. Readers may have to look twice—the poems in this book are disguised as street signs, newspaper headlines, graffiti, milk cartons, and more!

J. Patrick Lewis has published more than 85 children's picture/poetry books to date and is a former Children's Poet Laureate (2011–2013). He lives in Westerville, Ohio.

Kenn Nesbitt is the author of 8 children's books and is the current Children's Poet Laureate. He lives in Spokane, Washington.

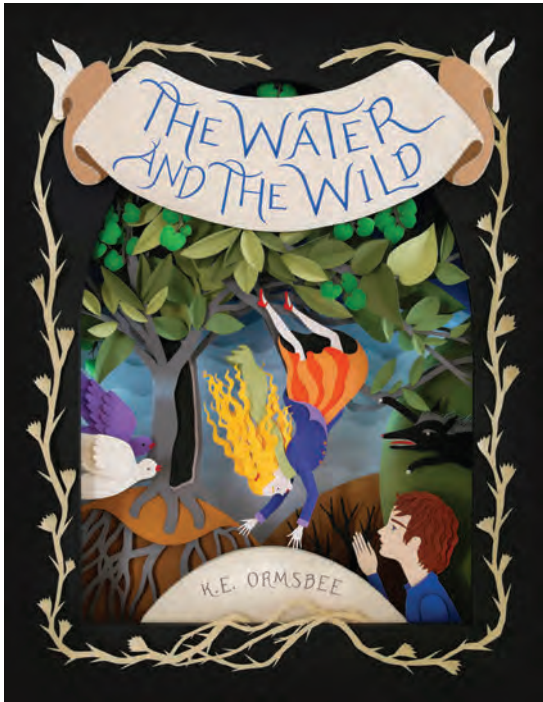

Minalima is Miraphora Mina and Eduardo Lima. They design props for feature films, as well as book and packaging design. They live in London, England.

The Water and the Wild

By K. E. Ormsbee

A green apple tree grows in the heart of Thirsby Square, and tangled up in its magical roots is the story of Lottie Fiske. For as long as Lottie can remember, the only people who seem to care about her are her best friend, Eliot, and the mysterious letter writer who sends her birthday gifts. But now strange things are happening on the island Lottie calls home, and Eliot's getting sicker, with a disease the doctors have given up trying to cure. Lottie is helpless, useless, powerless—until a door opens in the apple tree. Follow Lottie down through the roots to another world in pursuit of the impossible: a cure for the incurable, a use for the useless, and protection against the pain of loss.

K. E. Ormsbee currently lives in Lexington, Kentucky. She lived in lots of equally fascinating cities before then, from Austin to Birmingham to London to Seville. She grew up with a secret garden in her backyard and a spaceship in her basement. This is her first book.

Lottie pulled back the sleeve of her periwinkle coat to see just how badly she'd been bruised.

But there wasn't a bruise. Where a bruise should have been, there was a handprint. A deep black handprint covered the crook of her elbow, and from it pulsed a hot, tight, uncomfortable feeling, like someone had tied a steaming tea bag too tightly around Lottie's skin.

A merry chirp shook Lottie's attention, and she looked up from the strange mark on her arm to catch a sight stranger still: a white fluttering of wings. A lone white finch was flying away, up into the nighttime rain, until Lottie could not distinguish it from the glaring white raindrops themselves.

For fans of Michaela MacColl's critically acclaimed novels of intrigue and romance, a new hardcover discovery, plus a new paperback

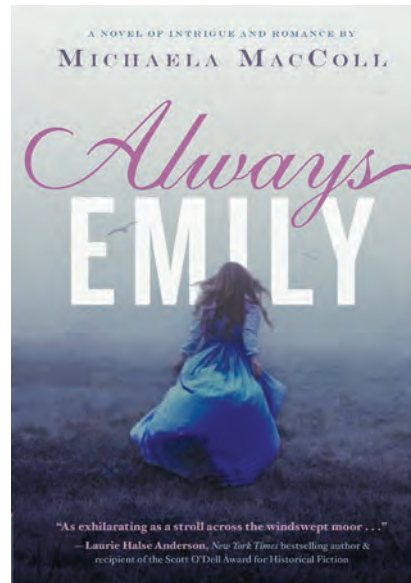

The Revelation of Louisa May

A Novel of Intrigue and Romance • By Michaela MacColl

Louisa May Alcott can't believe it—her mother is leaving for the summer to earn money for the family and Louisa is to be in charge of the household. How will she find the time to write her stories, much less have any adventures of her own? But before long, Louisa finds herself juggling her temperamental father, a mysterious murder, a fugitive seeking refuge along the Underground Railroad, and blossoming love. Intertwining fact, fiction, and quotes from Little Women, Michaela MacColl has crafted another spunky heroine whose story will keep readers turning pages until the very end.

Michaela MacColl studied multidisciplinary history at Vassar College and Yale University, which turns out to be the perfect degree for writing historical fiction. She lives with her husband and two daughters in Connecticut.

Always Emily

A Novel of Intrigue and Romance • By Michaela MacColl

Emily and Charlotte Brontë are as opposite as two sisters can be, but they have one thing in common: a love of writing. Can they use their imaginations to determine the connection between the mysterious death of a neighbor and the appearance of a handsome stranger? And will Emily find love along the way? "Equal parts gothic melodrama and Nancy Drew derring-do" (Kirkus Reviews), this intriguing amalgam of fact and fiction is "filled with . . . mystery and witty humor" (School Library Journal, starred review) "that is guaranteed to bring new readers to MacColl" (Voice of Youth Advocates (VOYA), starred review).

The Meaning of Maggie

By Megan Jean Sovern

As befits a future President of the United States of America, Maggie Mayfield has decided to write a memoir of the past year of her life. And what a banner year it’s been! During this period, she’s Student of the Month on a regular basis, an official shareholder in Coca-Cola stock, and defending Science Fair champion. Most importantly, though, this is the year Maggie has to pull up her bootstraps (the family motto) and finally learn why her cool dude dad is in a wheelchair, no matter how scary that is. Author Megan Jean Sovern, herself the daughter of a dad with multiple sclerosis, writes with the funny grace and assured prose of a new literary star.

Megan Jean Sovern is an award-winning copywriter at a major advertising agency. She lives in Atlanta, Georgia. This is her debut novel.

A portion of the proceeds of the sale of this book will be donated to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Upside Down in the Middle of Nowhere

By Julie T. Lamana

Armani Curtis can think about only one thing: her tenth birthday. She’s having a party, her mama is making a big cake, and she has a good feeling about a certain wrapped box. Turning ten years old is a big deal to Armani. It means she’s older, wiser, more responsible. But when Hurricane Katrina hits the Lower Nines of New Orleans and tears her world apart, Armani realizes that being ten means being brave, watching loved ones die, and mustering all her strength to help her family weather the storm. A gripping story of courage and survival, Upside Down in the Middle of Nowhere celebrates the power of hope and love in the face of the unthinkable.

Julie T. Lamana lives in Greenwell Springs, Louisiana, and worked in an after-school program for children displaced by Hurricane Katrina, gaining a unique insight into their experiences surviving the storm. This book is a reflection of those experiences.

The Falconer

Book One • By Elizabeth May

Edinburgh, 1844. Beautiful Aileana Kameron only looks the part of an aristocratic young lady. In fact, she's spent the year since her mother died developing her ability to sense the presence of sithichean, a faery race bent on slaughtering humans. She has a secret mission: to destroy the faery who murdered her mother. But when she learns she's a Falconer, the last in a line of female warriors and the sole hope of preventing a powerful faery population from massacring all of humanity, her quest for revenge gets a whole lot more complicated. Now in paperback, this electrifying thriller—the first volume of a trilogy from an exciting new voice in young adult fantasy—blends romance and action with steampunk technology and Scottish lore in a deliciously addictive read.

Praise for The Falconer:

Missing Socks Matching Game

Illustrated by Lydia Nichols

Ah, the perennial post-laundry problem: Where is that missing sock? Unlike doomed pairs that go into the laundry only to return from tumble dry solo, this entertaining game keeps the pairs intact, allowing young players to match socks adorned with cute animals, eye-catching patterns, and other colorful surprises! Kids will delight in uncovering the missing socks while building memory, concentration, and matching skills. And parents will delight in all those pairs of socks perfectly matched, at last!

Lydia Nichols is a graphic designer and illustrator. She lives in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Little Pea

By Amy Krouse Rosenthal • Illustrated by Jen Corace

Ten years ago, Amy Krouse Rosenthal burst into children's books with Little Pea, a book destined to become a classic. Her witty text about a little pea who won't eat his sweets combined with the whimsical yet warm hearted art by Jen Corace create a go-to baby gift, a hilarious read-aloud, and the perfect intervention for picky eaters.

Amy Krouse Rosenthal is a Chicago-based writer. She is the author of the upcoming I Wish You More (see page 51), the bestselling book Duck! Rabbit!, as well as Little Hoot and Little Oink.

Jen Corace received her BFA in illustration from the Rhode Island School of Design and has illustrated a number of children's books, including Little Pea, Little Hoot, Little Oink, and her newest Chronicle title, Telephone. She lives in Providence, Rhode Island.

"A sweet elaboration of the original's reassuring message that 'every little thing is gonna be all right.'" —Kirkus Reviews

Every Little Thing

Based on the Song "Three Little Birds" by Bob Marley
Adapted by Cedella Marley • Illustrated by Vanessa Brantley-Newton

Now in board book, Every Little Thing brings Bob Marley's beloved song to life for a new generation. Every family will relate to this universal story of a boy who won't let anything get him down, as long as he has the help of three special little birds. Including all the lyrics of the original song plus new verses, this cheerful book will bring a smile to faces of all ages—because every little thing's gonna be all right.

Bob Marley (1945–1981) was a Jamaican singer-songwriter and musician, and remains the most widely known performer of reggae music. Time magazine chose Exodus, which includes "Three Little Birds," as the greatest album of the 20th century.

Cedella Marley has dedicated herself to keeping her father's message and memory alive, and performs with the Melody Makers internationally. She lives in Miami, Florida.

Vanessa Brantley-Newton is an author and illustrator. She lives in East Orange, New Jersey.

A Strange Place to Call Home

The World’s Most Dangerous Habitats & the Animals That Call Them Home • By Marilyn Singer • Illustrated by Ed Young

Of all the miracles of life, it is life’s persistence that astounds the most. In the endless black of the deepest caves, blind fish find their way. In a frozen forest, snow monkeys find a cozy hot spring to keep warm. Even in the salt desert’s barren cold, flamingoes bloom like vivid flowers. The 14 animals in this book defy the odds and make their homes in the unlikelyst of places—under the weight of seas, in the belly of tar pits, in the sandstorm’s mouth.

Marilyn Singer is the author of more than 90 books for children and young adults, including A Stick Is an Excellent Thing, A Full Moon Is Rising, and the award-winning Mirror Mirror. She lives in Brooklyn, New York, and Washington, Connecticut.

Ed Young has illustrated more than 80 books for children, many of which he also wrote. He is the winner of both the Caldecott Medal and the Caldecott Honor. He lives in New York.

★ “Moving . . . Certain to inspire fresh interest in discovering, and in caring for, our world’s wonders.”

Manfish

A Story of Jacques Cousteau
By Jennifer Berne • Illustrated by Édric Puybaret

Once upon a time in France, a baby was born under the summer sun. His parents named him Jacques. As he grew, Jacques fell in love with the sea. He dreamed of breathing beneath the waves and swimming as gracefully as a fish. In fact, he longed to become a manfish. Jacques Cousteau grew up to become a champion of the seas and one of the best-known oceanographers in the world. In this lovely biography, now in paperback, poetic text and gorgeous paintings come together to create a portrait of Cousteau that is as magical as it is inspiring.

Jennifer Berne is the author of the acclaimed On a Beam of Light. She writes children’s books about our amazing universe and the people who are passionate about it. She lives in Copake, New York.

Édric Puybaret is an award-winning illustrator of several books for children. He lives in Paris, France.

Praise for Fish Finelli:

"Packed with humor and action. . . . Helps meet the demand for transitional chapter books specifically written for boys." —Booklist

Fish Finelli: Operation Fireball

Book 2 • By E. S. Farber • Illustrated by Jason Beene

When Bryce Billings says he will clobber Fish Finelli in the Captain Kidd Classic boat race, Fish has no choice but to accept the bet. But Fish's 1970s Whaler with a broken motor is no match for Bryce's new, top-of-the-line, 9.9-horsepower Viper. Even if Fish, Roger, and T. J. can fix the measly 5-horsepower motor, it can't compete with Bryce's boat. With $9.63 between them, do the guys even have a chance of beating Bryce at the Classic? A hilarious, action-packed romp filled with nonfiction sidebars, this latest installment in the entertaining new chapter book series is hotter than a fireball.

E. S. Farber is the mother of a boy who likes facts along with his fiction, which inspired her to write Fish Finelli. She has authored numerous books for children. She lives in Amagansett, New York. Jason Beene is the art director of Calloway Digital Arts and teaches at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Rhode Island School of Design. He lives in Providence, Rhode Island.

A Butterfly Is Patient

By Dianna Hutts Aston • Illustrated by Sylvia Long

From the creators of the award-winning An Egg Is Quiet, A Seed Is Sleepy, and A Rock Is Lively comes this gorgeous and informative introduction to the world of butterflies. An incredible variety of butterflies are celebrated here in all of their beauty and wonder, from the tiny Arian Small Blue to the grand Queen Alexandra’s Birdwing. Perfect for a child’s bedroom bookshelf or for the classroom!

Dianna Hutts Aston is the author of many books for children and is the founder of the Oz Project, a nonprofit foundation for disadvantaged children. She lives on an island off the coast of Texas.

Sylvia Long is the illustrator of many bestselling books for children, including Sylvia Long’s Mother Goose and Hush Little Baby. She lives in Scottsdale, Arizona, with her husband and their dogs.

“Sophisticated. . . Vibrant.”

Golden Domes and Silver Lanterns

A Muslim Book of Colors • By Hena Khan
Illustrated by Mehrdokht Amini

With breathtaking illustrations and informative text, Golden Domes and Silver Lanterns magnificently captures the world of Islam, celebrating its beauty and traditions for even the youngest readers. Sure to inspire questions and observations about world religions and cultures, this entrancing volume is equally at home in the classroom as it is being read to a child on a parent’s lap.

Hena Khan has written children’s books on a wide variety of topics, and she takes particular interest in writing about her Muslim culture. She lives Rockville, Maryland, with her husband and sons.

Mehrdokht Amini grew up in Iran and now lives in Surrey, England. She has illustrated 11 books for children.

CHILDREN'S

TURNING HEADS,

What Do You Want to Eat, Pascal?

By Magali Le Huche

Pascal wakes up really, really, really hungry. There is nothing left to eat in his refrigerator and he can't figure out what he wants! Pascal visits his friends to find something yummy to put in his tummy. But, yuck! Cardigan, Fancy, Zelda, and Ringo eat really strange stuff! Pascal is still very hungry and he still doesn't know what he wants! Finally, Pascal figures out what he's in the mood for. . . . What could it be?

Join Pascal, Cardigan, Fancy, Zelda, and Ringo in this first book in a series as they explore life's little mysteries—by means of opening the multiple flaps throughout—with imagination and humor.

Magali Le Huche studied decorative arts in Strasbourg, France, before she began illustrating children's books in Claude Lapointe's illustration program. Since then she has published more than 25 books and her work can be seen regularly in children's magazines. She lives in Paris, France.

Lift-and-Play™ Colors

By Emiri Hayashi

Are pigs red? Is chocolate cake pink? In this entertaining book children learn color concepts through a lively question-and-answer format. Toddlers will giggle at the silly suggestions and revel in answering this fun-filled interactive call-and-response board book. With large flaps opening to reveal the answers, it is great for read-alouds with the preschool crowd.

Japanese-born Emiri Hayashi moved to France to study graphic design at the Paris design school, l'Institut Supérieur des Arts Appliqués. Shortly after graduating, she discovered her love of children's illustration and started working in children's books and magazines. Emiri lives and works in Paris.

A Very Nice Glass of Wine: A Guided Journal

By Helen McGinn

In this lighthearted guided journal, Daily Mail wine columnist Helen McGinn simplifies wine education for amateur wine drinkers who want to know more about wine and are looking for a fun, easy way to learn. Fifty-two weeks of intuitive fill-ins become a self-taught course in wine-tasting, gleaned from evaluating one new wine each week, combined with McGinn's streamlined explanations of key wine know-how (what distinguishes common wine styles, how to read wine labels, what wine terminology really means, and more). Users end up with a working knowledge of wine, an understanding of which wines they enjoy and why, the confidence to shop for wine, and a lasting record of all the new wines they've tried over the year.
