Sing a Season Song

The shivering cold of winter. The fresh, new signs of spring. The toe-wiggling freedom of summer. The leaf-dropping days of fall. Each season is celebrated for many different reasons, but one never fails to roll right into the next. Jane Yolen’s lilting verses and Lisel Jane Ashlock’s sensitive portraits convey the cyclical nature of the seasons in this poetic tribute to the characteristics of the four periods of the year.

Jane Yolen has been called “the Hans Christian Andersen of America” because of her significant contributions to children’s literature. She has written more than 300 books for readers of all ages, with a list of publications that includes the Caldecott Medal–winning Owl Moon.

Lisel Jane Ashlock celebrates the beauty of the natural world in every project she undertakes. Her award-winning work has been featured in magazines, books, ad campaigns, and elsewhere, but this is her first book for children. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.
The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

In his 1876 semi-autobiographical account of life in a small Missouri town, Mark Twain assembled a cast of characters so memorable that they became imprinted on American culture for all time. Illustrator C. F. Payne breathes new life into the impish Tom, overbearing Aunt Polly, the “idle and lawless” Huckleberry Finn, and all the other residents of fictional St. Petersburg in Creative Editions’ first publication of Twain’s most popular and widely read novel.

Mark Twain (1835–1910), as Samuel Langhorne Clemens was popularly known, grew up in Hannibal, Missouri. Working as a riverboat pilot on the Mississippi and a miner and reporter in the American West as a young adult, Twain eventually became a sought-after lecturer and renowned author of travel stories, satire, and humorous novels.

C. F. Payne is an acclaimed American artist whose work has appeared in many periodicals, including Time, Sports Illustrated, and Rolling Stone. He has illustrated picture books such as Lineup for Yesterday and earned such honors as the 2003 Book Illustration Award. He is a distinguished professor of illustration at Columbus College of Art and Design and lives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Long Tall Journey

When a giraffe is taken from its beloved acacia grove in Africa and sets sail for France, it does not welcome the adventure at first. Everything is foreign; nothing is familiar. Taking his cue from the imagined perspective of the captive, author Jan Wahl crafts a sympathetic tale with roots in reality. Meanwhile, French artist Laurent Gapaillard’s arresting landscapes offer a panoramic view of each episode, reinforcing the scope of The Long Tall Journey made by a 19th-century exotic gift.

Jan Wahl has dedicated much of his adult life to writing for children, authoring previous Creative Editions books such as The Enchanted Sled and Bear Dance. His first children’s title, published in 1964, was illustrated by Maurice Sendak. An Ohio native, Wahl lives and works in Toledo.

Parisian designer and illustrator Laurent Gapaillard has lent his talents to animated feature films, television series, video games, and novels. Recent gallery exhibitions have also featured his work. The Long Tall Journey is his first project for Creative Editions.

A Christmas Carol

From the bustling, snowy streets of 19th-century London to the ghostly apparitions of Christmases past and future, award-winning artist Roberto Innocenti vividly renders not only the authentic detail but also the emotional impact of Charles Dickens’s beloved Christmas tale. In both crowded urban scenes and intimate portraits of familiar characters, we gain a sense of the timeless humanity of the tale and perhaps catch a glimpse of ourselves.

Charles Dickens (1812–70) is one of the most popular English authors of all time. His works include 15 novels and many sketches, travel books, and other nonfiction works. Dickens also wrote five “Christmas books.” The first, A Christmas Carol, was published in 1843. Today, it is recognized as one of the most famous stories ever written.

Roberto Innocenti is a self-taught artist who has earned worldwide acclaim with such illustrated books as The House, Nutcracker, Rose Blanche, Erika’s Story, The Adventures of Pinocchio, and The Girl in Red. In 2008, he received the prestigious Hans Christian Andersen Award for his contributions to children’s literature. He lives in Florence, Italy.

Where Do I End and You Begin?

“Where do I end and you begin? / Asked the cat of its tail, / Asked the shell of the snail.” From animals and plants to natural phenomena and sensory images, this rhythmic poem employs a thought-provoking refrain to introduce the concept of interconnectedness in life. By exploring the relationships the parts have to the whole, author Shulamith Oppenheim underscores that where things come together represent the strongest points of connection—and that the connections we make with one another bring everything full circle.

To Ohio-born Shulamith Oppenheim, a devoted grandmother and writer of nearly 20 books for children, the pure honesty children bring to their interactions with the world provides inspiration and encouragement.

Monique Felix is a renowned Swiss artist and author who studied graphic arts at L’Ecole des Arts Appliqués in Lausanne. She has since illustrated more than 40 acclaimed children’s books, including Creative Editions’ The Rumor, The Velveteen Rabbit, Tuba Lessons, and The Good Ship Crocodile. Among her many honors is the Octogone Prize from the International Center of Children’s Literature in France.

Many years ago there was a doctor called John Dolittle, M.D. The "M.D." showed that he was a proper doctor. He lived in Puddleby-on-the-Marsh. Children followed him everywhere.

"Hey, diddle diddle, it's Dr. Dolittle"

Dr. Dolittle and his sister Sarah lived in a small house on the edge of town.

The doctor loved animals and had many pets.

Rabbits

Mice in the piano

Squirrel

Hedgehog

Goldfish
Doctor Dolittle

Based on Hugh Lofting’s The Story of Doctor Dolittle, iconic American artist Seymour Chwast reinterprets the 1920s tale for a 21st-century, graphic-novel-influenced audience. Although the text itself has been reimagined to fit the format, the general plot of The Story of Doctor Dolittle, along with the sentiments and ideals behind it, remain the same: in Dr. Dolittle’s world of childlike wonder and hope, we are all encouraged to be caretakers of the creatures around us.

Born in 1931 in New York City, Seymour Chwast developed his talent for drawing from an early age. In the 1950s, he cofounded Push Pin Studios (now The Pushpin Group), and he remains the organization’s director today. Chwast’s style has always been marked by a rich eclecticism that has set his work apart from the mainstream, and in 1985, he was honored with a Gold Medal from the American Institute of Graphic Arts (AIGA). He lives in New York with his wife, the graphic designer and painter Paula Scher.
