SOCIOLOGY BOOKS

SERIES IN CHILDHOOD STUDIES

KIDS IN THE MIDDLE
How Children of Immigrants Negotiate Community Interactions for Their Families
Vikki S. Katz

"With richly painted portraits of children and families working together in a variety of contexts, this book deepens our understanding of the complex work involved in immigrant family language brokering, as well as ways to support that work. Katz shows the critical role that youth play in giving families access to new media technologies as well as to health and wellness."
—Marjorie Faulstich Orellana, UCLA
192 pages • 5 tables • 978-0-8135-6218-6 • Paper $26.95

DEFINING STUDENT SUCCESS
The Role of School and Culture
Lisa M. Nunn

"Beautifully done. Lisa Nunn deftly shows how particular high schools refract American ideals of merit, hard work, and intelligence in ways that encourage some students toward elite colleges and nudge many others toward alternate futures. Nunn’s careful ear and sophisticated analysis combine for an especially thoughtful sociology of aspiration."
—Mitchell Stevens, Stanford University
188 pages • 2 figures, 1 table • 978-0-8135-6361-9 • Paper $25.95

PINPOINTS

First Paper Edition
WORRIED SICK
How Stress Hurts Us and How to Bounce Back
Deborah Carr

Cutting through a sea of scientific research and theories, Worried Sick answers many questions about how stress gets under our skin, makes us sick, and how and why people cope with stress differently. Included are several standard stress and coping checklists, allowing readers to gauge their own stress levels.
90 pages • 2 figures, 4 tables • 978-0-8135-6537-8 • Paper $16.95
New in
SOCIOL OGY

Deserving Desire
Women’s Struggle for Social Recognition
Nora Alter

Loft Living
Culture and Capital in Urban Change
Sharon Zukin

Worried Stick
An Indian Sore
Sudha Varma

Urban Nightlife
Reuben A. Buroc May

The Methamphetamine Industry in America
Daniel H. Born

Kids in the Middle
Rutgers University Press
Vikki S. Katz

How Children of Immigrants Negotiate Community Interactions for Their Families
Sharon Zukin
SOCIETY BOOKS

FRAMING FAT
Competing Constructions in Contemporary Culture
Samantha Kwan and Jennifer Graves

“Kwan and Graves were successful in challenging conventional beliefs about fat bodies. In so doing, they highlighted weight discrimination as a significant problem worthy of attention, as fat continues to be moralized, medicalized, and politized.”

—Mitchell J. Chang, University of California, Los Angeles

192 pages • 6 figures, 1 table • 978-0-8135-6091-5 • Paper • $25.95

FAITH, FAMILY, AND FILIPINO AMERICAN COMMUNITY LIFE
Stephen M. Cherry

“Using interviews and surveys, sociologist Cherry presents a thick description and analysis of the interplay of faith, family, and community life among the first generation of Filipino Americans in Houston, Texas. A significant contribution to immigration, ethnic/multicultural, Asian American, and religious studies. Highly recommended.”

—Choice

214 pages • 978-0-8135-6168-4 • Paper • $24.95

WHEN DIVERSITY DROPS
Race, Religion, and Affirmative Action in Higher Education
Julie J. Park

“Park’s groundbreaking work shows us what happens to students’ capacity for bridging racial divides and reconciling conflicts under either color-blind or race-conscious conditions. She provides a remarkably fresh approach that forces us to reconsider the impact of diversity.”

—Mitchell J. Chang, University of California, Los Angeles

214 pages • 978-0-8135-6281-0 • Paper • $26.95

DESERVING DESIRE
Women’s Stories of Sexual Evolution
Beth Montemurro

“Montemurro help[s] us understand what a complex subject sexuality is for women. The honest and in-depth interviews in this book encourage women to think about why sex has been considered shameful, and they illustrate how women can create good sexual lives on their own terms.”

—Pepper Schwartz, author of The Normal Bar: The Surprising Secrets of Happy Couples

224 pages • 7 tables • 978-0-8135-6439-5 • Paper • $27.95

JEWISH ON THEIR OWN TERMS
How Intermarried Couples are Changing American Judaism
Jennifer A. Thompson

Jennifer A. Thompson tells the stories of intermarried couples, the rabbis and other Jewish educators who work with them, and the conflicting public conversations about intermarriage among American Jews.

214 pages • 978-0-8135-6136-3 • Paper • $24.95

THE EX-PRISONER’S DILEMMA
How Women Negotiate Competing Narratives of Reentry and Desistance
Andrea M. Leverenz

“When a woman leaves prison, she enters a world of competing messages and conflicting advice. The Ex-Prisoner’s Dilemma offers an in-depth, firsthand look at how the former prisoner manages messages about returning to the community.”

248 pages • 3 tables • 978-0-8135-6227-8 • Paper • $26.95

CRITICAL ISSUES IN CRIME & SOCIETY

MANAGING MADNESS IN THE COMMUNITY
The Challenge of Contemporary Mental Health Care
Kerry Michael Dobransky

“Dobransky carefully explores the often contradictory institutional logics of community-based psychiatric care and offers fresh insights on how these competing views shape our fragmented system of community mental healthcare.”

—Eric R. Wright, Georgia State University

190 pages • 4 tables • 978-0-8135-6308-4 • Paper • $26.95

MAPPING “RACE”
Critical Approaches to Health Disparities Research
Edited by Laura E. Gómez and Nancy López

“The arguments in Mapping “Race” are at the cutting edge of research; the authors’ tight focus on health and health disparities is sensible and timely. Besides outlining racial disparities in health, the authors provide an executable set of solutions.”

—Rachel T. Kimbro, Rice University

246 pages • 8 figures, 8 tables • 978-0-8135-6136-3 • Paper • $27.95

WHY WE HARM
Lois Presser

“Presser makes a unique contribution to discussions of violence. She ends this enlightening and disturbing book with a set of recommendations for ‘unmaking misery: A compelling and accessible read for scholars and lay readers alike. Highly recommended.”

—Choice

180 pages • 2 tables • 978-0-8135-6258-2 • Paper • $24.95

TOUGH ON HATE?
The Cultural Politics of Hate Crimes
Clara S. Lewis

“Lewis provides a rigorous examination of hate crimes as a cultural product. The first analysis of its kind, the author has eloquently captured hate crimes as a seemingly impossible marriage of an oppressive criminal justice system and an aspiring civil rights movement. A deeply valuable contribution.”

—Michael J. Coyle, California State University, Chico

168 pages • 2 photographs, 3 graphs • 978-0-8135-6230-8 • Paper • $24.95

2013 Choice Outstanding Academic Title

FALLING BACK
Incarceration and Transitions to Adulthood among Urban Youth
Jamie J. Fader

“With Falling Back, Fader offers a subtle blending of structural analysis and cultural attentiveness, highlighting the performative and transactional dimensions of both reform school and street life.”

—Jeff Ferrell, author of Crimes of Style: Urban Graffiti and the Politics of Criminality

278 pages • 978-0-8135-6073-1 • Paper • $27.95

THE METHAMPHETAMINE INDUSTRY IN AMERICA
Transnational Cartels and Local Entrepreneurs
Henry H. Brownstein, Timothy M. Mulcahy, and Johannes Huessy

“This study of the social networks involved in the distribution and manufacture of methamphetamine provides a level of understanding unmatched in previous research. The authors masterfully weave a tale that reflects the complexities of the business while using personal stories to present a human face on larger social processes.”

—Dr. Ralph A. Wesheft, Illinois State University

176 pages • 978-0-8135-6985-7 • Paper • $25.95

WHY WE HARM
Lois Presser

“Presser makes a unique contribution to discussions of violence. She ends this enlightening and disturbing book with a set of recommendations for ‘unmaking misery: A compelling and accessible read for scholars and lay readers alike. Highly recommended.”

—Choice

180 pages • 2 tables • 978-0-8135-6258-2 • Paper • $24.95

TOUGH ON HATE?
The Cultural Politics of Hate Crimes
Clara S. Lewis

“Lewis provides a rigorous examination of hate crimes as a cultural product. The first analysis of its kind, the author has eloquently captured hate crimes as a seemingly impossible marriage of an oppressive criminal justice system and an aspiring civil rights movement. A deeply valuable contribution.”

—Michael J. Coyle, California State University, Chico

168 pages • 2 photographs, 3 graphs • 978-0-8135-6230-8 • Paper • $24.95