DO YOURSELF A FAVOR...FORGIVE

Learn How to Take Control of Your Life Through Forgiveness

JOYCE MEYER

New York Times* bestselling author Joyce Meyer tackles one of the most important issues in modern faith: Forgiveness.

Building on her signature message of using the mind to master difficult emotions, Joyce Meyer focuses on the most destructive, insidious one of all: anger. It is responsible for broken relationships, sleepless nights, high blood pressure, and ulcers. It destroys friendships, marriages, and families, not to mention peace of mind. Anger is especially hard to handle for many Christians who have learned from childhood that “good Christians don’t get angry.” Meyer argues that properly handled, anger is an alert system that something is wrong and needs to be resolved.

In her latest book, she delves into the important process of forgiving, explaining its positive impact on the roots, the forms, and the results of anger.

Why forgive? Meyer argues that forgiving is the only thing that can free one from the terrible turmoil that anger causes to spill over into every part of life.

Meyer understands that life will never be fair, but that is not a reason to let anger destroy our well-being and health. This is her guide to navigating that thorny territory and finding true peace.

DO YOURSELF A FAVOR...FORGIVE provides a blueprint for resolving anger in a manner that is truly healing, focusing on:

- ◆ Unmasking anger that you’re not even aware of
- ◆ How to deal with angry people
- ◆ Constructive uses of anger
- ◆ The power of Godly confrontation
- ◆ The importance of forgiving yourself!
- ◆ Understanding God’s role in forgiveness

Do Yourself a Favor... FORGIVE

Learn How to Take Control of Your Life
Through Forgiveness.

A FAITH OF OUR OWN

Following Jesus Beyond the Culture Wars

JONATHAN MERRITT

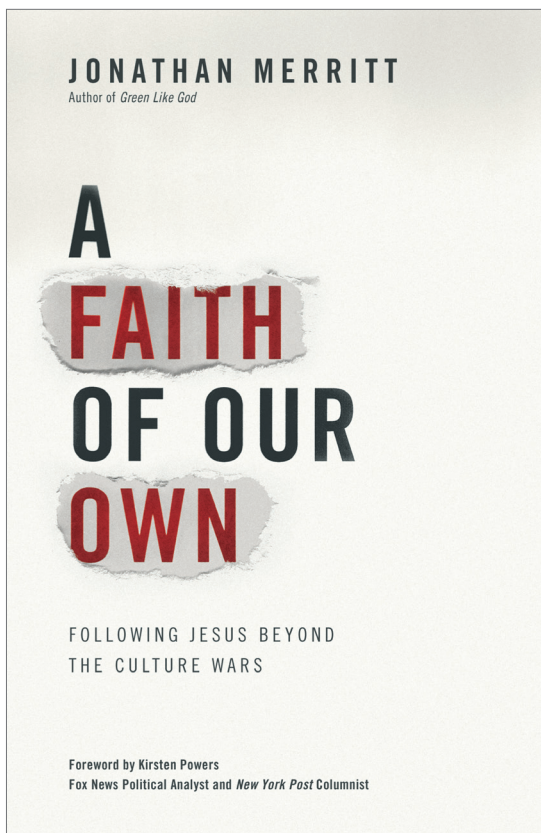

FOREWORD BY KIRSTEN POWERS

A rising young Christian leader gives voice to a new generation of believers who want to influence the world but reject politics and the current “culture wars.”

Major headlines tell the story of how Christianity is attempting to influence American culture and politics. But statistics show that young Americans are disenchanted with a faith that has become culturally antagonistic and too closely aligned with partisan politics. In this personal yet practical work, Jonathan Merritt uncovers the changing face of American Christianity by uniquely examining the coming of age of a new generation of Christians.

Merritt illuminates the spiritual ethos of this new generation of believers who engage the world with Christ-centered faith but an un-polarized political perspective. Through personal stories and biblically rooted commentary, this scion of a leading evangelical family takes a close, thoughtful look at the changing religious and political environment, addressing such divisive issues as abortion, gay marriage, environmental use and care, race, war, poverty, and the imbalance of world wealth. Through Scripture, the examples of Jesus, and personal defining faith experiences, he distills the essential truths at the core of a Christian faith that is now just coming of age.

- FaithWords published Green Like God (978-0-446-55725-2, 4/10) to excellent reviews.
- Merritt is the son of a popular televangelist who was also president of the Southern Baptist Convention. A FAITH OF OUR OWN engages the reader with tell-all stories from inside the American religious movement.
- Merritt is a faith and culture writer who has published more than 250 articles in respected outlets such as USA TODAY, Atlanta Journal-Constitution, BeliefNet, Christianity Today, The Huffington Post, and CNN.com.
- As a respected Christian voice, Merritt has been interviewed by ABC World News, NPR, CNN, PBS, Fox News, the New York Times, and the Washington Post.
- Kirsten Powers is a Fox News political analyst and writes a column for the New York Post.

YOUR WORDS HOLD A MIRACLE

The Power of Speaking God's Word

JOHN OSTEEN

WITH COMMENTARY AND A
FOREWORD BY JOEL OSTEEN

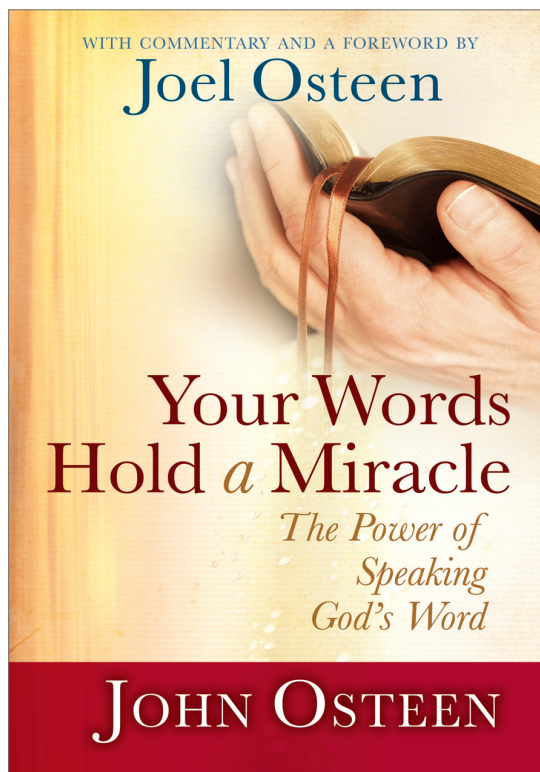

Life's much-needed miracles are already waiting for us in the Word of God. All we need to do is claim them for our own.

At some point in every person's life, we will need a miracle from God. It may be for us, a family member, or a troubled child. It might be a mountain of family or financial trouble, or some unseen force that fills us with fear.

The late John Osteen has good news for us. We can have a miracle from God, for God is a miracle worker. And He has recorded many of His miracles in His Word, the Bible.

Rather than running around, searching for much-needed miracles, Osteen shows us how to put the power of God's Word into daily practice. When we agree with, believe in, and confess the Word of God, miracles reveal themselves.

- YOUR WORDS HOLD A MIRACLE will include a special dedication written by John Osteen's wife, Dodie Osteen.
- FaithWords published John Osteen's Becoming a Man of Unwavering Faith in May 2011 and it was a CBA bestseller.
- John Osteen's son, Joel Osteen, pastor of Lakewood Church, will help promote the book via Lakewood's many media vehicles.
- Joel Osteen's latest book, Every Day A Friday (978-0-89296-991-3) will be published in September 2011, with a Journal edition to be published in April 2012 (see page 4) and the trade paperback edition in August 2012 (see page 18).
- John Osteen served as a pastor, evangelist, author, and teacher for 60 years, traveling extensively throughout the world, both in person and via his TV program, which ultimately extended to 100 countries.
- During his lifetime, John Osteen authored more than 20 titles that were published by John Osteen Publications, including The Confessions of a Baptist Preacher, Reigning in Life as a King, The Truth Shall Set You Free, There Is a Miracle In Your Mouth, and The Believer's #1 Need.
- The first 32 pages will feature a beautiful 4-color design, with the remainder of the book appearing in two-color.

Instead of anger, she found herself slowly but steadily healing. She lost 100 pounds and gained hope.

STARDUST

A Novel

CARLA STEWART

An East Texas widow inherits a rundown motel, determined to start over. When her first guest is her dead husband's mistress, pregnant and stricken with polio, a change of plans leads to a change of heart.

Shortly after burying her unfaithful husband, Georgia Peyton unexpectedly inherits the derelict Stardust motel from a distant relative. Despite doubts from the community and the aunt who raised her, she is determined to breathe new life into it. But the guests who arrive aren't what Georgia expects: Her gin-loving mother-in-law; her dead husband's mistress; an attractive but down-on-his-luck drifter who's tired of the endless road; and an aging Vaudeville entertainer with a disturbing link to Georgia's past.

Can Georgia find the courage to forgive those who've betrayed her, the grace to shelter those who need her, and the moxy to face the future? And will her dream of a new life under the flickering neon of the STARDUST ever come true?

- Carla Stewart's first novel Chasing Lilacs (06/10) received the 2011 Best Fiction Book award at the Oklahoma Writers Federation, Inc. (OWFI) in Oklahoma City. The Oklahoma Book Awards is nationally recognized by the Library of Congress as one of the premier book award events in the country.
- Carla also won first place in the 2007 American Christian Fiction Writers Genesis contest for Chasing Lilacs.

THE HIDDEN LIFE

An Amish Quilt Novel

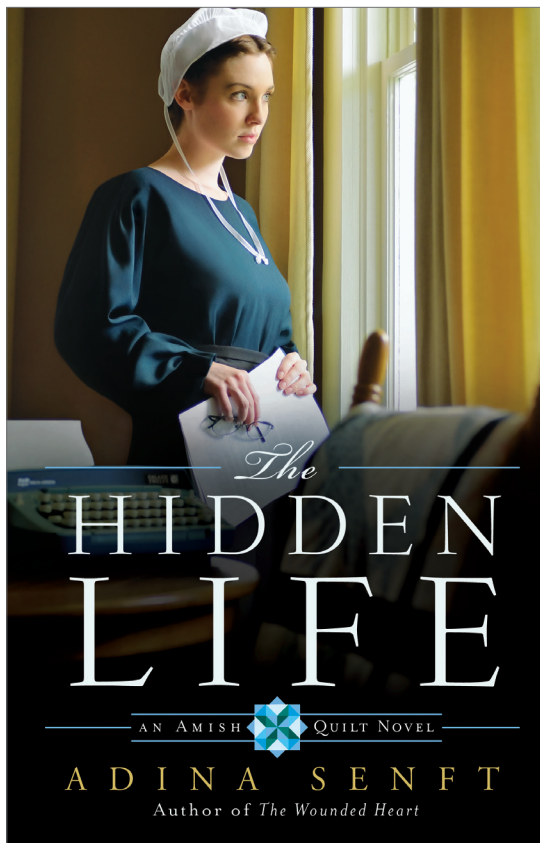

ADINA SENFT

In this follow up to The Wounded Heart, Emma makes a discovery about herself that could lead her outside the Amish community, turning her world upside down.

Emma Stolfus has never been courted or kissed, despite a few dates during her Rumspringe years that never amounted to anything. Now 30 years old, it has become her place as the unmarried daughter to look after her elderly mother.

In the dark hours when her mother is asleep, Emma writes letters and essays to Amish periodicals, short stories, and even a novel she's been working on for the last five years. When an editor at a New York publishing house, Tyler West, takes an interest in her work, Emma secretly goes to meet him. It is the first time a man has paid attention to her, and beyond that Tyler wants to publish her novel. Emma suddenly finds herself torn between her Amish faith and the lure of all that the English world offers her.

- Appealing to fans of the popular fiction genre, The Amish Quilt trilogy follows the struggles and passions of three Amish friends. The first in the series, The Wounded Heart, was published by FaithWords in September 2011.
- Adina Senft grew up in a plain church that shared many beliefs with the Amish. She is able to write compelling and accurate stories about life in a contemporary Amish community.
- In a July 22, 2010 article on the growth of the romance genre, BusinessWeek noted "the most popular microtrends of the moment are Amish—and Mennonite-themed romances, which covered the bestseller lists last fall."
- Each book in the Amish Quilt series will include part of the instructions on how to make the quilt the characters work on throughout the three novels, culminating in a finished quilt.

REUNION

A Novel

LAURINE SNELLING

In this intimate tale of faith and family, each generation struggles with its own secrets until a fateful reunion brings them all to light.

Keira Johnson, a 50-year-old mother of two grown sons, believes she lives a good Christian life without secrets—until she discovers a life-jarring fact her late mother kept hidden all her life. Keira was born out of wedlock, and the man she had always known as her father had adopted her as an infant.

Meanwhile, Keira's beloved 17-year-old niece, Kirsten, has just discovered an unwanted pregnancy. Her boyfriend, José, is bound for college and Kirsten does not know what to do. As the family comes together for a reunion, Keira and Kirsten struggle with their fractured pasts and jumbled present. Will truth and honesty be the catalysts that allow the entire family to find peace?

Inspired by events in Lauraine Snelling's own life, REUNION is the author's finest novel to date.

- Lauraine Snelling has sold well over two million books and has been on the CBA best-seller list consistently.
- The story behind the novel—Lauraine's mid-life discovery that she was born out of wedlock, and that her "dad" was not her birth father—will interest both reviewers and readers.
- Lauraine has received The Golden Heart Award for Song of Laughter (Gale Cengage Learning, 2008) from Romance Writers of America and a Silver Angel Award for An Untamed Land (Baker Publishing Group, 2006). Additionally, she has received the Excellence in Media and Pace Setter Awards.
- Lauraine's novel One Perfect Day, published by FaithWords in trade paperback in October 2008, has sold nearly 50,000 copies to date and is currently in its seventh printing. The mass market edition released in August 2011. On Hummingbird Wings published in April 2011.
- Snelling's fan base has expanded from the CBA into the ABA market, like other successful authors such as Sue Monk Kidd and Jan Karon.

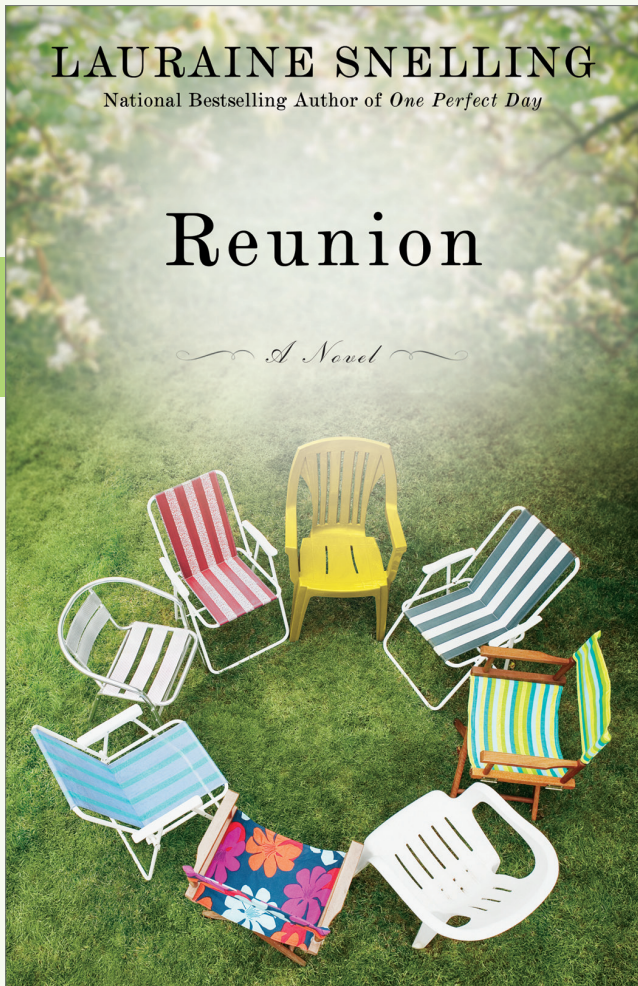

LAURINE SNELLING lives in Tehachapi, California.

INDIVISIBLE

Restoring Faith, Family, and Freedom Before It's Too Late

JAMES ROBISON AND JAY W. RICHARDS

A handbook for Christians that connects Biblical principles with practical politics, providing the tools needed to have a lasting impact on our culture.

Many books have been written on conservative politics. Many more have been written calling Christians to holiness and spiritual revival. Few, however, have managed to combine a clear explanation of the conservative political perspective with its corresponding personal and spiritual virtue.

In INDIVISIBLE, James Robison, the founder and president of LIFE Outreach International, partners with Jay W. Richards, Ph.D., a writer who has appeared in both the New York Times and Washington Post. Together, they tackle tough, controversial political issues facing conservative Christians today, including abortion, stem cell research, education, economics, health care, the environment, judicial activism, marriage, and more. Written to appeal to a broad spectrum of believers, INDIVISIBLE not only argues political questions from a scriptural standpoint, it also provides simple arguments that Christians can use in public settings.

- INDIVISIBLE (978-1-4555-0312-4) will be published in hardcover by FaithWords in February 2012.
- The book will be heavily promoted via Robison's ministry, including the LIFE Today TV broadcast, the website, direct mail, and social media.
- Robison and Richards shared their vision for this book with more than 40 of the most well-known and influential ministries in the United States, and secured their commitment to promote the message of INDIVISIBLE.
- Robison hosts LIFE Today, a syndicated daily TV broadcast which falls under the umbrella of his LIFE Outreach International ministry. It reaches audiences in the United States, Canada, and Australia.

WHAT WOULD JESUS READ?

Daily Devotions That Guided the Savior

JOE AMARAL

What if we could do the same daily devotions Jesus actually did?

After the destruction of the first temple in Jerusalem, the Jews were exiled to Babylon. Not only was there no longer a physical place to pray, even the sacred Scriptures were becoming scarce. Many of the biblical scrolls were lost or destroyed during the exile. In an attempt to preserve the Scriptures, the Rabbis divided up the biblical texts into weekly reading portions and distributed them among the families of Israel. Each was responsible for memorizing their assigned passage and then reading it in the synagogue every Sabbath. This system of reading is the basis for the story found in Luke 4:16-17: "He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him."

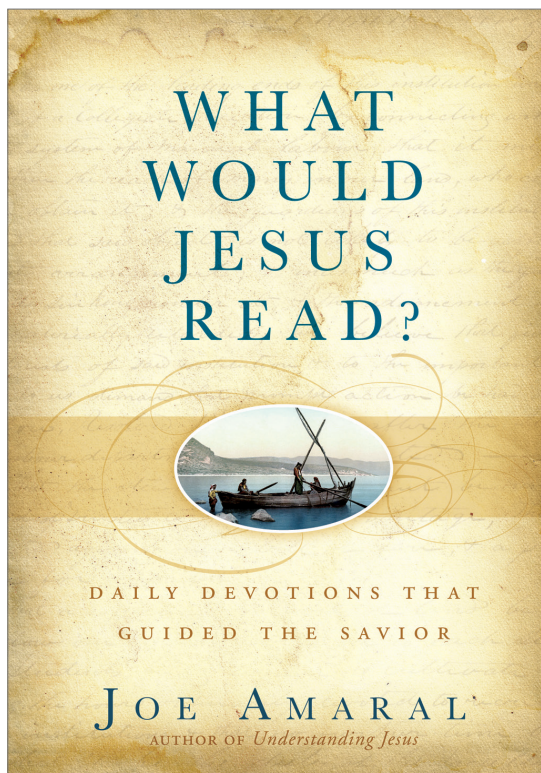

This system is still in use today by Jews all over the world. In WHAT WOULD JESUS READ?, Joe Amaral gives modern day Christians the opportunity to follow and practice the same devotional system that Jesus used.

- This devotional begins in September, which would have been the custom in Jesus's time.
- The weekly readings are comprised of two texts: one from the Torah, and one from the Prophets.
- The reading cycle consists of 54 weekly readings. Amaral takes each reading week and breaks it down into seven daily devotionals, for an annual total of 378 daily readings.
- Amaral's work at his ministry, Operation Outreach, conducting regular tours to the Holy Land, have enabled him to create this unique devotional that follows in the footsteps of The Savior.
- Amaral's first book, Understanding Jesus, was published by FaithWords in trade paperback in April 2011.

PRAISE FOR UNDERSTANDING JESUS:

"Joe Amaral sheds significant new light on the person and work of the Messiah by digging deeper into the Hebraic roots of the New Testament text."

—Wayne Hilsden, Senior Pastor, King of Kings Community, Jerusalem

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

A Women of Hope Novel

GINNY AIKEN

In 19th century Oregon, a young pioneer woman is torn between her family and a husband she barely knows in this tale of providence and deliverance.

The first in an inspirational new series, FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS is a retelling of Esther 4:14. Farmers, forced by drought to mortgage their land, hope for relief when the railroad announces plans to build a spur line through their area. Land speculation quickly follows, led by a young banker, Eli Whitman.

Widower Whitman has recently wed Olivia Moore in a marriage of convenience and, while she's proving to be an excellent "investment," his in-laws give him pause. When Whitman's land purchases force Olivia's family off their homestead just as winter sets in, Olivia fears for their safety. Though she swore to stay out of his business, it's up to Olivia to convince her new husband to pull back on his demands in this masterful period romance.

- Each novel in the Women of Hope series is loosely based on a Biblical story. The titles are taken from the corresponding Bible passages. FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS is inspired by the story of Esther.
- Historical women's fiction is a top-selling category in inspirational fiction, and late 19th century frontier/prairie romance is the most popular period and setting. Historical women's fiction tied with Amish Fiction in 2010 for the most ECPA bestsellers.
- Aiken is the author of over 30 published works with over 500,000 copies in print and has won the Mid-American Romance Writers Fiction from the Heartland Award and a Romantic Times Reader's Choice Award for her writing.
- This book will appeal to readers who enjoyed Walker's Wedding by Lori Copeland (Harvest House, 2010) and A Measure of Mercy by Lauraine Snelling (Bethany, 2009).
