JILL SHALVIS

delivers the third book
in her Colorado-set Cedar Ridge series.

“Flawless. This author knows romance and readers can always expect her to deliver humor, heat and a kick-ass story.”

—RT Book Reviews on Second Chance Summer

“Fall in love with Jill Shalvis! She’s my go-to read for humor and heart.”

—Susan Mallery, New York Times bestselling author

“Clever, steamy, and fun! Jill Shalvis will make you laugh and fall in love.”

—Rachel Gibson, New York Times bestselling author

After an overseas mission goes wrong, Army Special Forces officer Jacob Kincaid heads home to Cedar Ridge, Colorado, to make things right. All he needs to scrub away his pain is fresh mountain air, a lakeside cabin, and quiet solitude. But what he finds is a gorgeous woman living on a boat at his dock. Sophie Marren is broke, intermittently seasick, and fighting a serious attraction to the brooding, dishy, I’m-too-sexy-for-myself guy who’s now claiming her dock. Something about Jacob’s dark intensity makes her want to tease—and tempt—him beyond measure. Neither one wants to give any ground...until they realize the only true home they have is with each other.

- Second Chance Summer, the Cedar Ridge series debut, was published by GCP in 6/15 and hit the New York Times mass market and ebook bestseller lists. It also spent two weeks on the USA Today bestseller list and four weeks on the Bookscan bestseller list. It will be followed by My Kind of Wonderful (GCP, 12/15).
- The final three books in Jill Shalvis's Lucky Harbor Series—It's in His Kiss (GCP, 9781455529520, 8/14), He's So Fine (GCP, 9781455529490, 9/14), and One in a Million (GCP, 9781455529544, 10/14)—hit the New York Times and USA Today bestseller lists. The series has more than one million copies in print combined.
- Fans of New York Times bestselling authors Robyn Carr (One Wish, Harlequin, 2015), Susan Mallery (Hold Me, Harlequin, 2015), and Kristan Higgins (In Your Dreams, Harlequin, 2014) will love Shalvis's writing.

On a quiet August morning, Judge Deborah Knott's father Kezzie discovers a dead body on his farm. Investigating the crime, Deborah's husband, Sheriff Deputy Dwight Bryant, soon uncovers a long-simmering hostility between Kezzie and the slain man over a land dispute, casting suspicion on the Knott family. Meanwhile, Deborah receives a cigarette lighter that once belonged to her mother, which makes her curious about her parents. How did they meet? And how could a prominent attorney's daughter marry the uneducated son of a moonshiner? Why are Deborah's brothers so evasive about the dead man? Is the murder linked to Kezzie's illegal whiskey business? And could his courtship of Deborah's mother have something to do with the bad blood between the two families? Deborah's loyalties are torn as she tries to clear her family from suspicion without hampering Dwight's investigation.

—Publishers Weekly (starred review) on Slow Dollar

“Maron knows how to adorn a solid murder mystery with plenty of ancillary entertainments.”

—New York Times

Kendall Deaton pulls herself and her baby out of a wrecked car, and a mixture of courage and fear gets her to the top of a ravine, where she flags down help. But she doesn't dare reveal her true identity to the authorities. Instead, she plans her immediate escape—and her perilous flight begins.

The best public defender in Prosper, South Carolina, Kendall had stumbled upon the town's chilling secret, turning her marriage to one of the town's most powerful men into a living hell. Now Kendall is a terrified mother trying to save her child's life...a reluctant witness who knows too much about an insidious evil...and a woman surrounded by forces that will stop at nothing to protect what is "theirs."

On his way to a meeting with a CIA source in Istanbul, Captain Thomas Crocker notices he's being tailed. He suspects the men tracking his movements are members of Syria's intelligence agency, the Mulhabarat—their presence a sign of the region's increasing volatility. Syria's government is unraveling, with the alliances between rebel groups increasingly complex, and ISIS dangerously in the mix. Farid al-Kazaz, aka the Fox, leads the most threatening of the ISIS factions. The Fox believes Syrian President Bashar al-Assad ordered the murder of the Fox's brother and has vowed revenge, planning a Sarin gas attack that would wreak havoc across not just Syria, but the entire Middle East. Now it's up to Crocker and the rest of SEAL Team Six to stop a ruthless killer and keep an explosive plot from detonating.

“The pace is relentless, and the inside knowledge of how the SEALs operate again gives this series its appeal.”
—Booklist

“Pulse-pounding reads filled with the kind of knowing, immersive detail that can only come from someone with real-life experience in the field. A great series.”

—Howard E. Wasdin, New York Times bestselling author of SEAL Team Six: Memoirs of an Elite Navy SEAL Sniper

For Ruby James, the Walker Mountain Ranch is her safe haven. Here in Aspen, Colorado, she can finally build a quiet life for herself without fear of her old one rearing its ugly head. Or so she thinks. Any single woman would be happy to indulge a tall, dark, and curious cop—but the closer Ruby gets to him, the closer she gets to losing her newfound peace.

Police officer Sawyer Hawkins is no stranger to secrets. He's ready to leave town for good until a security threat brings him back to Walker Ranch, and Ruby's gorgeous green eyes soon have him second-guessing his decision to go. Her kindness and quiet strength awaken feelings he'd thought long buried, even as her reluctance to talk about her past worries him. The cop in Sawyer only wants the truth—but the man in him wants Ruby in his arms forever.

KATIE MACALISTER

returns with the third book in her paranormal dragon series.

“An instant classic!”

—RT Book Reviews on Dragon Fall

“4 1/2 stars, Top Pick! MacAlister hits the humor button dead on. This cast of wacky—if somewhat dangerous—characters makes for giggles galore, while also producing some hair-raising adventures. MacAlister has written a cure fo the common blues!”

—RT Book Reviews on Holy Smoke

Sophea Long knows that escorting her octogenarian client to Europe will be an adventure. But she hadn't counted on Mrs. P leading her right into the arms of a smoldering, dark-haired stranger who kisses like a dream. If only he'd give up all this nonsense about Sophea being some kind of dragon....

There's a reason Rowan Dakar is known as the Dragon Breaker. The last thing he needs is to fall for a woman who literally sets him aflame every time they kiss. After all, he has a mission and can't afford to be distracted by the funniest, most desirable woman he's ever set eyes on. But no prophecy in the world can ever stop true love....

- The first book in the series, Dragon Fall, was published by Forever in 7/15. It will be followed by Dragon Storm in 11/15.
- This series is a spin-off of Katie MacAlister’s New York Times and USA Today bestselling dragon books published with Penguin (Sparks Fly, 2012; The Unbearable Lightness of Dragons, 2011; and Love in the Time of Dragons, 2010), featuring characters her fans know and love.

Vincent knows he's not the most charming of the Moretti brothers. He prefers brooding to flirting, reading to talking, and he sure as hell isn't about to give in to his mother's insistence that he "settle down with a nice girl." Luckily, Vincent's gig as one of the NYPD's top homicide detectives keeps him busy. As does his long-time partner, Jill Henley—a tough-as-nails cop with the face of an angel and a smart mouth that makes Vincent crazy in all the worst ways.

But when their most recent case points to a potential serial-killer, the higher-ups send them on a rare undercover mission to a place no NYPD officer dares go: the Upper Eastside. Now the bureau's most antagonistic set of partners is posing as Mr. and Mrs. Brooks of Park Avenue. Soon Vincent and Jill are playing good cop/bad cop in and out of bed, and Jill's falling hard. But can she convince Vincent to give her a shot as partner in life, as well as at the bureau?

“Stellar.”

—Publishers Weekly on Frisk Me (starred review)

“Funny, delightfully steamy, and deeply touching...Soon-to-be-a-hit series.”
